Medic Building Gets Go-Ahead

Duffel-Smoother Companies' application to establish a medical and professional building in Orinda was unanimously approved by the County Board of Adjustments Tuesday night.

The planners had made a field trip to the site which is on the West side of Camino Encinas, approximately 160 feet south of Moraga Way. There was no further discussion of the land use permit application.

THE BOARD said that it had viewed the site, was familiar with the location, and felt that the medical-professional building would be a good use for the parcel.

Joe Duffel, of Duffel-Smoother Companies, stated that there were no immediate plans to begin construction. His company was talking with "two of Orinda's leading doctors," he said. Plans were now at the preliminary sketch stage.

Duffel stated that they envisioned a two-story building with 7000-8000 square feet of space, "lots of stone and open space," and 40 parking spaces.

"We would like to start the building the latter part of summer," he said.

THE COUNTY put a restriction of seven office spaces on the building.

At the public hearing April 23, more than 25 persons in the area went to Martinez in protest of the proposed variance.

Spokesmen for the Camino de Encinas Homeowners' group were Edward Flinn and Robert Nelson.

The group has 10 days in which to file an appeal. At press time, it was uncertain as to whether this would be done.

"We're disappointed," said Nelson, who was speaking for himself, since the homeowners had not yet met to discuss the board's decision.

"I would think that we would appeal... We've gone to a lot of trouble to preserve that lot, and are willing to go through more," he said.

Sitting on the board were Robert Elliott, Frank Beede and Timothy Lynch.

If the homeowners' group appeals, the matter is referred to the county board of supervisors.

Option Extended

The Orinda Association announced today that its option to purchase 64 acres of EBMUD land adjoining the 10-acre parcel the association owns near the Orinda crossroads has been extended by agreement with EBMUD until May, 1964.

ASSOCIATION President Harry Fledderman said the extension of the option period was necessary since it was presently impossible for the association to know whether it would like to purchase the property in connection with development of all not cause further delay to the district.

Meanwhile the association's development plans for its property have been slowed.

"The Orinda Association appreciates the cooperation of EBMUD's directors and general manager in extending the option in order to permit the association to resolve the uncertainty over use of its land by BARTD," said Fledderman.

or part of its 10-acre parcel, or in lieu thereof, in view of uncertainty as to the extent of that parcel the Bay Area Rapid Transit District may seek to acquire for its Orinda station and parking lot.

THE BARTD has tentatively planned for the use of the association's land, subject to final engineering.

Fledderman stated that he expected discussions with BARTD would be held later this year if present transit litigation does

'Monster in the Living Room' to Be AAUW Topic

Benjamin Draper, one of the country's top TV producers and executive producer of the award laden "Science in Action" television series, will speak on "The Monster in the Living Room."

He will address the annual installation luncheon of the Orinda branch of the American Association of University Women at Mike Lynn's restaurant, Orinda, at 12:30 p.m. Thursday.

DRAPER has also produced a children's science series, "Explorers of Tomorrow," for four years; a music program, "Jazz Session," and a kiddies' show, "Clown Factory."

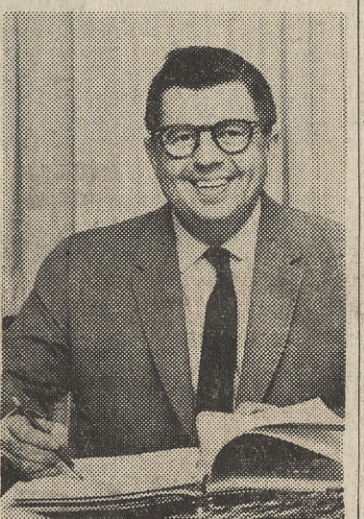

He has taught both television production and writing at the University of California for several years. Draper is also a historian, a writer, a poet and raconteur.

Prior to the address, Mrs. Arnold O. Anderson of 128 Diablo View Road will be installed as 1963-64 president of the Orinda branch.

A GRADUATE of Stanford University, Mrs. Anderson was one of the original members of the local branch, which was organized in 1956. She was previously a member of AAUW branches in Jacksonville, Florida, and Walnut Creek.

She has been active as chairman of both the international relation section and the legislative program.

This past year, Mrs. Anderson served as the legislative representative on the state social and economics issues committee.

BEN DRAPER

The Andersons have a son and daughter. Bob, 16, is a sophomore at Miramonte and Jean, 14, will graduate from Pine Grove this June. Anderson is industrial relations director at the Naval Air Station, Alameda.

OTHER BRANCH members to be installed are Mrs. Wallace Dodson, first vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. Leslie Merrill, second vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Merritt L. Herring, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Elkinton, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Elliot Hartman, treasurer.

A report on the AAUW state convention at Disneyland will be given by Mrs. Anderson.

Park Director To Discuss Recreation Plans

Duane Mattison, county park director, will discuss the proposed development of East Bay Municipal Utilities District plans for parks and recreation areas Monday night at 8 p.m. at Orinda School.

Mattison will address the meeting of the civic affairs committee of the Orinda Association.

Charles A. Legge, chairman, stated that this would be the final scheduled meeting until fall. However, he added, the committee would hold whatever special meetings were necessary throughout summer.

Mattison will also discuss the county plans for parks and recreation areas since the defeat of last year's bond proposal. He will also consider other matters of recreation of interest to Orindans.

The public is invited.

Rothenberg Rules On Rapid Transit Suit This A.M.

A ruling on final issues in the Bay Area Rapid Transit suit will be made this morning at 9 a.m. by Superior Court Judge Martin E. Rothenberg.

Rothenberg's office announced the ruling time yesterday in Martinez.

The judge will rule on the propriety of salaries paid BARTD Information Director Bill Stokes during the bond election campaign and on whether the co-venturing engineers employed by the district had fulfilled a fiduciary relationship with the district.

If David E. Birenbaum, attorney for four suing taxpayers, appeals as he is expected to do, the whole matter will be out of the courts by late summer, according to district counsel Wallace L. Kaapcke.

This, said Kaapcke, "is as good a guess as anyone can make."

Judge Rothenberg has already dismissed major allegations against the district, thus pronouncing the $792 million bond election legally valid.

Kaapcke said a ruling in favor of transit today would dissolve the injunction which has prevented engineers from proceeding.

Birenbaum, however, can ask the state supreme court to keep Rothenberg's injunction in effect while an appeal is being heard.

Last 'Last' Plan F Meet To Be Held

Another "last" meeting on the proposed unification of the Orinda, Moraga and Canyon School Districts has been called for Tuesday at the Pine Grove School in Orinda, Assistant County Superintendent H. Frank Bradford said this week.

An earlier meeting, April 30, which was supposed to have concluded the procedures necessary to make the unification recommendation to the State Board of Education, failed of its purpose because the seven to three vote fell short of the necessary majority approval by one vote, Orinda was "absent."

The augmented Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization as constituted for the Orinda-Moraga-Canyon proposal is composed of 15 members, the 11-man county-wide committee and one member each from the three elementary districts and the Acaelans Union High School District.

Dr. Bradford pointed out that not much time remains between now and the deadline date of September 15, by which the district organization committee must submit a master plan of unified districts for the county, failing which such a plan would be prepared by the State Department of Education.

Two Stores Burglarized In Orinda

The Orinda Pharmacy and the Orinda Hardware Store were burglarized some time between 9 p.m. Wednesday and 7 a.m. Thursday.

Entry to the pharmacy was made by drilling holes in the roof. At the hardware store, the burglar broke in a window.

The last employee left the pharmacy at 9 p.m. Wednesday. Milton Kaiser, owner of the hardware store, arrived at 7 a.m. yesterday and reported the burglary.

At press time, it was not yet determined what was missing from the stores, nor was the sheriff's report complete.

'Left Bank of Paris' Coming To Suburbia!

Final arrangements are being made for "Orinda's Festival of Arts" to be held May 25 from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The affair is a community project sponsored by the Orinda Woman's Club, Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 156, local members of the Chamber of Commerce and Orinda schools.

A theme, "Left Bank of Paris," will feature local painters, potters, jewelers, weavers and other artists in related fields.

Participating artists will set up their own displays in the Orinda business district.

Ken White Will Head Orinda's Chamber

The following slate of officers for the Orinda Chamber of Commerce was presented by A. P. Winsor, chairman of the nominating committee, at yesterday's noon meeting at Casa Orinda.

President, Kennon P. White, Jr.; vice president, Frank Cole; secretary-treasurer, Clarence Betz.

DIRECTORS: Bea Zavalney, Laura Mallory, Edward Todd, Kenneth Courtright, A. P. Winsor, Vasco Giannini. Outgoing president, Ed Amatrone, will be a director-at-large.

Amatrone stated that work on the bus turnout is expected to start in 30 days.

"It is the opinion of your chamber that this will help the traffic situation at the crossroads business area, especially between the hours of 4 and 6:30 p.m. when the commuter buses come through regularly," said Amatrone.

THE EDWARD I. de Laveaga memorial committee's chairman, Clarence Betz, reported on the two offers for sites. They were on the library grounds and on the property owned by Bolman-Caygill adjacent to the post office.

A third possible site, on a corner of the Orinda Country Club's entry was dropped because of complications.

The committee will welcome suggestions from the community as to the type of memorial, said Betz. He suggested that ideas be sent to the Chamber of Commerce, Post Office Box 277, Orinda, marked to his attention.

The committee will work out suggestions for financing and report back to the chamber, Betz said.

Amatrone thanked all who donated to the turfing project at Pine Grove Intermediate School. "This project was a success and enough money was raised to carry out the project in full," he said.

'Giant M' Will Be Dedicated by East Bay Water

East Bay Water will dedicate the "Giant M," the third aqueduct connecting the East Bay with the pure Sierra snows, at outdoor ceremonies in Orinda Thursday.

Adding to the celebration will be recognition of East Bay Water's 40th anniversary.

THE GIANT "M," which will bring 181 million of gallons of water daily to the East Bay, is the first major project to be completed in the $283 million Water Development Program authorized by the voters in 1958.

"The need for this new aqueduct has become increasingly apparent during the past year," said Louis J. Breuner, president of East Bay Water's board of directors.

"The average daily consumption last year was 160 million gallons, but the two existing aqueducts could only deliver 157 million gallons daily, necessitating the use of local storage. The 'Giant M' will be able to deliver an additional 181 million gallons daily," he said.

The pipeline, more than seven feet in diameter, stretches 90 miles from Foothills to Orinda, and includes seven tunnels, the longest of which bores three miles underneath Charles Hill between Orinda and Lafayette.

THE MAJORITY of the aqueduct is constructed of 20-ton, 40-foot sections of cement coated, mortar lined steel pipe. More than 12,500 such sections were used and the aqueduct contains more steel than the San Francisco Bay Bridge, Breuner commented.

All Schools to Display Artwork at Pine Grove

Orinda's young, budding artists will shine this week-end. Sunday afternoon, from 1 to 5, at the Pine Grove auditorium, the Orinda Union School District will display varied art work. It has been done by the school children during the past year.

Art displays from all grades will be represented. Some exhibits of particular interest are:

Sculptured clay faces of Lincoln and Father Serra were modeled by the fourth grade class of Mrs. Andre at the Orinda School. Experimental color movies were done by Miss Schlegel's fifth grade class.

AT DEL REY School, Miss Stump's kindergarten class made mosaics with bean, seeds, macaroni, etc., to show the contrast of spatial development in children. The third grade class of Mrs. Fridel also worked in that media.

At Sleepy Hollow School, two murals on conservation were executed, one by Mrs. Gehres' first grade class, the other by Mrs. Tracey's third grade.

AT GLORIETTA School, sand castings with melted pieces of show.

colored glass were made by Miss Blesi's sixth grade. Mr. Arnold's sixth grade made free-form sculptures from imitation stone material.

AT INLAND VALLEY School, clay sculpture with an antiqued bronze look were modeled by Mrs. Gorman's sixth grade class. Transparent glass plaques were done by Mrs. Boyle's fourth grade.

At the Pine Grove and Inland Valley intermediate schools, under the direction of Ed Youngs, students used art materials such as chalk, water colors, charcoal, oil crayons and tissue paper for their exhibits. Their work will be displayed on green or white oriental scrolls. Examples of lettering and monogramming will also be shown.

The posters seen at the various stores were made by students of Youngs' classes, using a silk screen process.

Mrs. Rossi, district art teacher, expressed thanks to the Western Sand and Brick Company, to Mrs. Dana Cook and to all the teachers, parents and friends who are helping with this show.

Dalby Resigns, Kelly to Take Over High DVC Post

The Contra Costa Junior College District governing board has appointed John G. Kelly as dean of instruction at Diablo Valley College after accepting the resignation of Dr. J. Philip Dalby.

The action was taken following a closed executive session which was called at the request of Trustee Harmon K. Howard of Walnut Creek.

Dalby, who has been in his present post since July of 1961, announced after the meeting that he has accepted an appointment as head of the department of general studies and assistant dean in charge of instruction of the Community and Technical College of the University of Toledo in Ohio.

KELLY WAS moved up from the assistant dean's post and the vacancy created by his promotion was filled with the appointment of Erving F. Metzger Jr., biological science instructor and student government advisor.

Metzger has been on a leave of absence for the past year, serving in Sacramento as administrative consultant for junior colleges with the Bureau of National Defense Education Act Administration for California.

Statistic Almost Happens On Camino Pablo Mon.

It was not a statistic. It will not go down on the county's records. Only black skid marks on the pavement remain as evidence.

And yet Monday, May 13, 1963, at 5:30 p.m., three 11-year-old girls were a breath away from serious injury—perhaps death—at the intersection of El Toyonal and Camino Pablo.

One of them, Mary Lee Eldred, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Eldred, 34 El Toyonal, was spun around by a speeding car. She suffered no worse than a skinned elbow and was taken home by a passing motorist, Ygo Jacuzzi, of Lafayette.

THE THREE girls, Mary Lee, Engel Ford and Colette Kersten, are fifth graders at Orinda School. They had stayed after school to participate in the school's recreational program. Therefore, they did not take the bus.

They were proceeding with caution across the El Toyonal crossing, having been warned of its danger. The trio got as far as the island and waited.

A CAR in the lane nearest them stopped. Mary Lee started to cross. The stopped car blocked her vision. A speeding Lincoln Continental spun her around, and skinned her elbow, according to the California Highway Patrol report.

(The CHP later issued a complaint after Mary Lee's mother called them. It was because of the "bodily injury" that CHP took the initiative in filing the report.)

The woman in the Lincoln Continental stopped her car and asked Mary Lee if she were all right. Mary Lee was stunned, "Yes," she said.

The car drove away, which technically is "hit and run," according to the CHP.

Jacuzzi brought Mary Lee home, hysterical and badly frightened. Mrs. Eldred expressed gratitude for Jacuzzi's kindness and also that the accident was not worse.

"It's a miracle that all three girls weren't killed," said Mrs. Eldred. They came that close...

Dr. Eldred stated that the close call ended Mary Lee's crossing the intersection alone. One of her parents will meet her if she must cross by foot, he said.

"Everyone on El Toyonal is concerned about the crossing," said Mrs. Eldred.

The 25-mile-an-hour zone ends at Miner Road.

Ironically, it was the Eldred's next door neighbor, Mrs. C. O. Ford, whose letter to the Orinda Association prompted it to again take up the matter of the "hazardous crossing."

The association authorized President Harry Fledderman to write a letter to Mark Kermit, traffic engineer, County Public Works Department, asking for action.

KERMIT REPLIED that the crossing at Santa Maria had top priority in the Orinda area because of its accident rating. He pointed out that no pedestrian accidents had occurred at the El Toyonal crossing.

Fledderman's reply to this letter will be received by Kermit today.

Mrs. Ford describes the crossing at El Toyonal "an impossible situation. We can't wait for the county to take care of another crossing first... This one is potentially lethal."

SHE POINTS out that when summer school starts, bus service will be completely eliminated. Now the El Toyonal children walk only when they participate in extra-curricular activities after school.

During summer school, they will all have to cross in the morning to get to school.

"Just another step and it might have been too late for those three girls," she said.

THE PROPOSED plans were a "fine example of school construction." She stated that the development on the gently sloping site would become a "landmark."

Over-all cost of the new school is estimated at $700,000.

Action Asked In Association Letter to County

"Progressively worse" is the way Harry Fledderman, president of the Orinda Association, describes the traffic situation at the El Toyonal-Camino Pablo.

County traffic engineer Mark Kermit will today receive a letter from Fledderman. (Copies went to Public Works Director Vic Sauer and Supervisor Mel Nielsen.)

Following are excerpts from Fledderman's letter:

"... The association has not received complaints or studied the Santa Maria crossing but we presume need for a signal there since you planned for one. We dislike having to implicitly consent to a choice between the two intersections for a signal."

"We do want better protection at El Toyonal and we believe a pedestrian signal there would be less costly than a conventional signal at Santa Maria. If there is a need for signals at both locations, perhaps the county should face the responsibility..."

"On May 13, another child was struck by a vehicle at the El Toyonal crossing. This is not the first such accident. Fortunately there was no serious injury and the accident may not therefore find its way into your statistics."

"We urge again greater pedestrian protection at this intersection, such as a pedestrian controlled signal. Substantial increases in pedestrian crossing increases after June 15."

"If I interpret your letter correctly, the Public Works Department has now decided to include the El Toyonal signal in its budget. We hope therefore that preparatory engineering and bid solicitation work has commenced so that installation can commence as soon as funds are provided."

"Please let us know what assistance we can provide in getting this aspect of your budget approved by the supervisors."

Moraga's 3rd School Site

Moraga School District's request for a 14½ acre elementary school site was unanimously approved by the County Planning Commission Tuesday night.

Plans for the district's third school were all ready approved by the State Department of Education.

The site is at the northwest corner of Irvin and Corliss Drives, near Miramonte High School. It was described as one of the "more imaginative" site developments presented to the county in a report by Mrs. Karen Beckmann, in charge of school site on the county planning staff.

SHE PRESENTED an evaluation of the staff's study of the site.

Also appearing was Superintendent William Knight who told of the district's growth from 35 students six years ago to 700 students today. He presented the plans for the site by architects Marshall, Leefe and Ehrencrantz.

Mrs. Beckmann stated that the proposed plans were a "fine example of school construction."

She stated that the development on the gently sloping site would become a "landmark."

Over-all cost of the new school is estimated at $700,000.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Seven Days in May:

IF YOUR MOTHER'S DAY didn't turn out the way you thought it would, don't feel too badly. You had lots of company. Including ME!

That old short-sport, the 48-hr flu bug, flew in on Friday & I was a Goner for the next three days. Sunday included.

FROM MY BED where I was buried with an assortment of baby's toys she kept bringing me for custody, I looked bleary-eyed out the window at a beautiful day. I was feeling truly repentful for having written so friskily about "M O M" last Friday. This was the punishment made to fit the crime of poking so cryptically at that most Sacred Cow, MOTHER . . . & now here I was hollering from the pillows in answer to the fire of questions that assailed me all day—from the kitchen, the back hill, the downstairs, the living room. For no one in a two-story house ever bothers to come TO you. They just bellow away as loudly as they can.

LARYNGITIS, I thought later. That's what I should have included with my symptoms. Then they wouldn't have expected an answer from me.

But other Mothers had it bad, too. The Moms that WANTED to be taken out to dinner didn't even get invited. The ones who DIDN'T want to go out to dinner, were bid so & blamed as spoilsports simply because they preferred cooking a nice dinner at home.

THE ONES who ARE sentimental didn't even get a card . . . while on the other hand the women who spurn sentiment & celebration of such a day set aside for good old Mom, were caught up in the commercialism of cards they didn't care about & gifts they didn't need.

ON THAT, I can't complain. After hinting around here for months, and keeping an empty bird cage as a centerpiece on the table for weeks, the family finally filled it.

I mean they blew me to a bird. A beautiful blue budgie. The children brought the bird & cage to my bed & since I was too weak to lift my littles pinky, proceeded to put in the feed, seed, water, gravel, etc. The only trouble was—

HAVE YOU ever slept in a bed full of gravel? I felt like the famous fairy-tale princess who complained of sleeping on the pea hidden under a mountain of mattresses. Only my gravel was well-spread under blankets, comforter, pillows & sheets. Just like the princess in the story. I have black & blue marks to prove it.

Pea gravel, well distributed, makes one look like the aftermath of a severe case of chicken pox. I may have swallowed some bird seed, too. I've been bursting into song every since I got feeling better.

ANYTHING is an improvement over my Mother's Day Portrait which was far from the picture of the lady in the cameo. More like the mad mean Queen out of Lewis Carroll's Wonderland.

PERHAPS I'm still delirious-tremendous! . . . But I felt reassured when reading that piece about California Spring Garden Show designer Howard Gilkey. He says he dreamed his show in technicolor. (You & I dream in technicolor, don't we, Dee Seifert.)

Like Gilkey, I can now adjust my dreams. If they're good, continue. If not, out & over. I'll be darned if I'll go back to plain old black & white dreams. I'm really spoiled now.

THAT TAKES care of 3 days in May. Let's see what the rest had to offer. Something better, I hope.

I'm full, however, of little items ranced at glandom, glanced at random.

MEANWHILE in France, I see that the scientists are making a study of daft dreamers in color. They blame it on too many mushrooms & mushrooms, I admit, are one of my weaknesses.

Mushrooms in May . . .

HERE WE GO GATHERING Mushrooms in May . . . Les Champignons, as they are called in Paris . . . & w/the gay abandon of gabby Parisiennes, ladies of the Lombardy Branch & guests board bus Tues., May 28, for the S.F. Palace of Legion of Honor visit (Versailles Treasures) & a picnic lunch in the park. . . .

SAN FRAN-bound this week were Ladine Hudson & June Thaman, Beta Theta Phi moms, who were off to the Jackson Square Tour for the benefit in the name of their sons' UC frat.

WASN'T THAT front-page Frank Schnugg family portrait for Wonderful last Friday in The Sun? Imagine getting 14 people into one picture all looking happy, neat, calm & most of all, collected?

Didja know that Sev Schnugg's uncle is married to poetess Phyllis McGinley? She's visited them here—but briefly. Probably felt bowled over by the brood having raised but two daughters herself.

Pick up her "Province of the Heart" book if you're raising daughters yourself. Wise, wonderful & witty as well.

FEELING kinda green still, reminds me that I forgot to pass on Sib O'Flaherty's sumptuous St. Patrick's dessert . . . Irish Coffee ice cream over which is sprinkled a demi-tasse spoonful of instant coffee. From then on, proceed cautiously when the brandy is passed for your pouring. A St. Patrick's sundae good any time.

Here too, is the place to buy your Norway-made irons for baking Krumkake, aebleskiver & the like & you don't have to be Scandinavian to do it!

MUCH ADO ABOUT SOMETHING: Dramateurs' "Merchant" is the most tremendous thing they've done yet! Everybody's seeing it or trying to & last week they had to squeeze 'em on the stairs & in the aisles.

Chief of the tribe, literally, is Charlie Merrell.

Along with his sons, he has been active in Indian Guides for over eight years. First, when Woodson and Greg were learning the ropes (and how to tie them)—and now with Doug and Patrick who are immersed in the Y.M.C.A.-sponsored father-son program.

Their red-haired mother, June, keeps them all well-fed, well-practiced on the piano . . . and well aware of what's to be done around the house. She does all this with a tremendous calmness contrary to the temperaments usually associated with titian-tressed females. June is a booster of the Bible Study Fellowship held weekly at Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church when she joins 350 other women in the series that started a little over a year ago with a handful of seven women.

A fine place for boys to "learn the chores with all the work to be done."

David Stillson Enters Air Force Training

Aviation Cadet David H. Stillson of Orinda recently entered United States Air Force navigator training at James Connally air force base, Texas.

Cadet Stillson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Stillson of 33 Meadowpark Court, Orinda. He will receive radar and celestial navigation training in air force T-29 "Flying Classroom" aircraft.

He will be awarded the silver wings of a navigator and a commission as a second lieutenant upon completion of the course.

He is a graduate of Miramonte High School.

Emory Finishes Naval Service

Patrick William Emory, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Emory of 14 Virginia Drive, Orinda, is expected home this month after completing two years in the U.S. Navy.

Serving aboard the U.S.S. Providence, flagship of the Seventh Fleet, he has visited Hong Kong, Singapore, Manila and Far East ports.

A 1961 graduate of Cubberley High School in Palo Alto where the family formerly lived, Emory is planning to enroll for summer session at the University of California.

AIRBORNE ARTIST

Orindan Takes To the Clouds For Air Force

Airborne Artist—Edward Ingalls (right), 7 Crescent Drive, Orinda, artist, is working with the Air Force art program.

He is receiving a briefing from Air Force Captain Thomas Reitman just before being taken up on the Air force F-100F jet.

Ingalls and another artist were recently on tour of U.S. installations in the Far East to get material for paintings of Air Force activities.

While at Clark Air Base, Philippines, they viewed the activities of 11 nations participating in the U.S.-Asian Fighter Weapons Conference, Flying Brothers 1963.

Reserve Officers Assoc. Elects Orindian President

New president of the 5500 member Reserve Officers Association, department of California, is Brigadier General Richard H. Neddersen of the 91st Division, Northern California's major army reserve component.

Neddersen, assistant division commander of the 91st, was elected president at the department's 35th annual convention held recently in San Diego.

He resides with his wife and two sons in Orinda.

NEDDERSEN is also active in Bay Area business and civic affairs. He is owner-manager of the Linkletter-Totten Childrens Dance Studios of Contra Costa and is a member of the Pleasant Hill Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a member of the Commonwealth of California.

For 26 years, Neddersen has been an active member of the reserve officers association, an organization of officers from all services. He has served with the 91st Division since 1946.

He served as an officer during World War II with "San Francisco's Own" 30th Infantry Regiment of the Third Division in the European, African, Middle Eastern Theater.

He participated in the North African campaign in 1942, landed in Sicily in 1943, and fought through the campaigns in Italy, including the battle of Salerno and the beachhead landing at Anzio. In September, 1944, he went with the Third Division to France.

Neddersen has received many awards and decorations including the Combat Infantryman's Badge, French Croix de Guerre and Fourragere, Italian Medal for Valor, EAME Theater ribbon with nine battle stars and bronze arrowhead, Silver Star, Legion of Merit and Bronze Star Medal with "V" device for valor and two Oak Leaf Clusters.

Linda Liu Wins 3rd in Contest

Linda Liu, Miramonte High School, was awarded third prize in a national French contest in French III category, Saturday.

The contest was sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of French. A total of 99 students in Northern California received recognition at the chapter awards presentation on the Berkeley campus of the University of California.

Linda is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Liu, 71 Camino Encinas, Orinda. Dr. Liu has a medical office in Walnut Creek.

Beeman is Installed By Jaycees

Bill Beeman was installed president for 1963-64 of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce at the annual banquet Tuesday evening at Mike Lynn's, Orinda.

Bill has been an extremely active Jaycee member, having been second vice president last year and chairman of several previous projects, according to Dave McCosker, outgoing president.

Also installed as officers for the coming year were:

George Block, first vice president; Len Kully, second vice president; Bruce McCausland, secretary; Jack Grant, treasurer; Dave McCosker, state director.

Defeated Demo Blasts Baldwin for 'Phony' Poll

The use and validity of the opinion poll of Congressman Baldwin has been challenged by Charles R. Weidner, president of the 14th Congressional District Democratic Club and unsuccessful Democratic Congressional candidate in the last election.

Weidner reported to a meeting of the Democratic Club that a sample poll taken by the club's committee produced overwhelming support for President Kennedy's tax cut program and for Federal aid to rapid transit in direct contradiction to the results of a similar poll conducted by the Republican Congressman.

(Ed. note: The Sun contacted Congressman Baldwin in Washington, asking him to comment on Weidner's charges and to relate in detail methods used in his recent poll.

The Congressman's reply, received Tuesday, made no mention of the poll challenged by Weidner. Representative Baldwin did, however, outline his views on the rapid transit bill the senate has passed and the house is considering, in response to a question The Sun asked.

For his position and comments on the bill, see separate story.)

"Baldwin uses his warped questionnaire as a crutch to excuse his weak position on many national issues," Weidner charged.

"Most Democrats recognize the Baldwin poll for what it is—a partisan political tool subsidized by the taxpayer through the mail franking privilege of the incumbent Congressman.

"For that reason most Democrats consider the questionnaire as 'junk mail' and deposit it in the waste basket with other junk mail," he said.

IT IS OBVIOUS to all persons familiar with polling techniques that weighted questions result in

Charging that Baldwin's questionnaire is "phony," Weidner said, "We do not contend that the results of our sample poll are completely reliable. We do contend that they are just as reliable and considerably more honest than the results of the Republican congressman's poll."

A committee of the 14th Congressional District Democratic Club polled a random sample of taken from mid-county precinct lists.

Of those responding 64.2 per cent favored the tax cut; 23.9 per cent opposed; and 11.9 per cent were undecided. Both Republicans and Democrats favored the program, but Republicans responded with 51.9 per cent yes votes against 72.5 per cent yes votes by the Democrats.

A QUESTION on this same subject by Baldwin which emphasized the amount of the Federal deficit, said Weidner, resulted in 39.7 per cent favoring a tax cut; 52.7 per cent opposing a cut; and 7.6 per cent undecided.

The second question in the Democratic Club's questionnaire dealt with Federal aid to local rapid transit districts and pointed out the benefit of such aid to Contra Costa property taxpayers.

The response was 74.6 per cent for Federal aid to rapid transit; 20.9 per cent against; 4.5 per cent undecided.

Democrats favored this position with 82.5 per cent voting yes; Republicans responded with a 63.0 per cent yes vote.

BALDWIN did not mention the effect in Contra Costa County of Federal aid to rapid transit, Weidner observed.

"He indicated that it was a new program for the Federal government."

The Baldwin results were 22.3 in favor of Federal aid to rapid transit; 69.8 per cent against; 7.9 per cent undecided.

In commenting on the different results in the two polls, Weidner claimed that the two Baldwin questions were worded in a "negative" way while the Democratic club poll "stated the questions positively."

"The voters are given the real reasons for proposed legislation," Weidner said, "they indicate their support very strongly."

"In a really valid sampling of voter attitude, both sides of a question should be clearly state," he maintained.

Baldwin Defends Fed'l Aid Stand

The voters of Contra Costa County "rejected" the views of defeated Democratic Congressional candidate Charles Weidner by a margin of more than 40,000 votes, Congressman John F. Baldwin flatly observed in partial reply to Weidner's attack this week.

The Congressman, responding to an inquiry from The Sun, defended his position opposing the federal aid to rapid transit bill on this basis and because, he said, the Bay Area Rapid Transit District might not get even two per cent of total costs from such federal aid.

Baldwin noted that both he and Weidner made their views on federal aid to transit known during the campaign last November.

"THE ESTIMATED Federal deficit for Fiscal Year 1964 is $11.9 billion," Baldwin said.

"Mr. Weidner has now again announced his position in favor of Federal aid for local rapid transit districts, and in favor of a tax cut.

"The first would cause a further increase in Federal expenditures for Fiscal Year 1964. The second would reduce revenues for Fiscal Year 1964."

Therefore, the 14th District Congressman continued, "both proposals would increase the Federal deficit for Fiscal Year 1964. I do not believe this will solve our Nation's fiscal problems."

THE RAPID transit bill passed by the Senate, Baldwin reported, would authorize $375 million in Federal aid to local rapid transit districts, with a proviso that no more than 12.5 per cent go to any one state.

"This means the maximum which California could receive under the bill would be $46,875,000.

"Los Angeles, San Diego, and the San Francisco Bay Area all would then want a share," Baldwin said.

Assuming the Bay Area got one third ($15,625,000), this would be less than two per cent of the estimated $792 million for the BARTD system, the congressman pointed out.

"THERE IS no assurance we would get this much," he added.

"Representatives of Los Angeles last week came before our California Congressional Delegation to advocate that the Federal Government put up $1 billion for a rapid transit system for Los Angeles alone."

Baldwin called such aid for local districts "an endless funnel," and maintained that the federal government should not enter the field "in view of its present and anticipated serious budget deficits."

"I do not believe," Baldwin went on, "that the citizens of Contra Costa County, as Federal taxpayers, should be asked to help finance local rapid transit systems for New York and Los Angeles."

The Congressman noted that he voted for the rapid transit bond issue in the November election, and said he felt transit should remain a local responsibility "as it always has been up to this time."

He said that the bill which the senate had passed had not yet been acted upon by the House.

Dist. Budget May Be Hiked 8 Cents

Acalanes Union High School District trustees have discussed a 1963-64 operating budget that may move the local tax rate from its present $1.80 to $1.85 or $1.88, depending on school support action taken by the current session of the legislature.

The projected budget of $4,100,000 represents a 9.5 per cent increase over last year's operating cost.

One dollar and eighty-eight cents is the district's maximum legal levy, using allowable overrides.

IN EXPLAINING the budget, assistant superintendent for business, Ross Reagan, stated, "The preliminary tentative budget reflects an anticipated enrollment rise of 8.3 per cent next year plus an estimated rise in costs per pupil of about 1.2 per cent.

Upward pressures on the tax rate also includes built-in salary increments amounting to 3.5 per cent for all employees."

Reagan projected that the cost per pupil for the district—"the standard unit of measurement for school expenditures"—would rise from its present $629 per year to $634.

He reported that the Acalanes District has historically been among the lowest for per pupil costs in the county. Last year it was third from lowest.

Statewide, among comparable districts, it ranks about in the middle on pupil expenditure.

THE BUDGET is predicated on an 8.3 per cent rise in district income primarily from anticipated increase in the assessed valuation. "The budget projection at this time does not include possible improved school support legislation by the state.

"We don't know how much, but we expect some and perhaps continued federal support through Public Law 874 on Impacted Federal Aid, which is up for reconsideration in this Congress," Reagan said.

Reagan explained that next year would probably find state support for schools increasing from 30.2 to 31.7 per cent and the proportion of local property tax contributions dropping from 66.6 to 65.4 per cent.

THE TENTATIVE preliminary budget allows approximately 68 per cent of operating expenditures for certified personnel salaries and 14 per cent for service personnel pay.

In a budget breakdown, Reagan explained, "Instructional service costs will rise to handle appointment of two full time deans at Campolindo and provide for 19 new teachers to meet enrollment growth.

"A limited number of new service personnel will also be added to handle the rise in student population and service requirements, as well as improved reader services to assist teachers in large lecture teaching situations.

"Instructional supplies will be up around 10 per cent, due to enrollment increase."

The budget estimate also allows replacement of worn-out equipment ranging from new typewriters at $7000 to $5000 for replacement of protective athletic gear, in addition to resupplying the stock of musical instruments and audio-visual equipment.

"District contributions to retirement funds, required by law, will also rise with the increase in the number of personnel needed to meet enrollment growth," Reagan said.

"Costs of community services will be higher next year too, reflecting a continuing trend for increased public use of buildings and grounds for non-school activities. The district will maintain its slim reserve of $217,000—a low amount considering the total expenditure anticipated."

WITH IMPROVED assessment and without the teacher salary adjustment approved in action following the budget discussion, Reagan later estimated that the district tax rate would have held at its current $1.80 per hundred dollars assessed valuation.

Thieves Steal Items from Apartments of 2 Women

Two women in the central county area were among victims of thieves during the past week, the sheriff's office reported yesterday.

A horse was even taken from pasture land, but the valuable animal was found grazing later near a strip of abandoned railroad tracks.

Linda Smith, 21-year-old secretary of 909 Irene Lane, Lafayette, discovered that her apartment had been checked over by a strange thief.

INSTEAD OF bothering with jewelry or camera equipment, he took a collapsible ice chest, four bags of chocolates and $25-$30 from two piggy banks.

He'd punched his way through a small window to get into the apartment.

In Walnut Creek, Shirley O'Brien, 26, a nurse, was asleep in her apartment at 1977 Newell Avenue when a prowler sneaked inside and removed $120 from her purse. The nurse had forgotten to lock her door, the sheriff's deputies said.

THE HORSE, a palomino gelding with white mane and tail and valued at $800, apparently was let out of pasture land north of Castle Hill Ranch in Walnut Creek. The animal is owned by Toni Mahoney of San Francisco.

B. Van Walbeck of the ranch discovered the horse gone when he checked the pasture. There were no torn spots on the fence nor had the gate locks been bothered.

But on Tuesday, Van Walbeck was still out looking for the horse when he spotted the palomino grazing in the vicinity of 2195 Danville Highway.

He roped the animal and took him back to the pasture where he belonged.

TWO SCHOOLS in the central area were damaged.

Vandals broke six windows at Del Valle High School in Walnut Creek and other juveniles wrecked thermostats and light tubes at the new Camino Pablo School being constructed in Moraga.

A tool shed at the Grayson Reservoir in Lafayette was also entered and $300 worth of equipment stolen.

Boy Accidentally Shot by Friend

A Danville boy was slightly wounded in the foot when he was hit by a bullet accidentally discharged from a friend's rifle, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

Roger Cloward, 16, of 1097 San Ramon Valley Road, and his pal, Blake Downing, 16, of 991 Ochro Road, both Danville, were sitting along a roadway when the accident happened Monday.

Police said Downing was holding a .22 caliber rifle when he accidentally pulled the trigger. Cloward was struck on his right big toe.

He was treated by a doctor and deputies gave Downing a lecture on gun safety.

The pair had been out shooting birds, police said.

Contra Costa State College?

Tomorrow Night They'll Know

The best of Contra Costa beauties will fight (decorously) for the coveted title of Miss Contra Costa tomorrow night at 8 in the Las Lomas High School auditorium.

(Pleasant Hill), Colene Lewis (Walnut Creek), Gigi Varone (Walnut Creek), Cynthia Thomas (Richmond) and Sybil Hall (Walnut Creek), and Marjo Donaghey (Richmond).

Inexorably absent from the line-up are Danielle De Rio (El Cerrito) and Judith Rencher (Pleasant Hill).

The finals, a complete musical show, are sponsored by the Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Additional entertainment will be provided by members of the Contra Costa Musical Theater, according to spokesman Jerry N. Stollar.

The winner will compete for the crown of Miss California in Santa Cruz, June 29, in televised finals there.

She will compete against 35 others for Miss California Scholarships and the right to compete in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City next fall.

$275 Pay Increase Voted HS Teachers

Teachers in the Acalanes Union High School District will get a $275 across-the-board pay increase next year.

High school trustees recently approved an Acalanes Education Association (AEA) teacher organization request for the pay change.

Speaking in behalf of the teacher association, instructor Lou Casey, AEA salary committee chairman, said of the request, "The district program reflects excellent teaching. The record of students achievement speaks better than anything we can say about ourselves."

"Capable teachers are worth the most that the district can afford to pay."

CASEY REPORTED that the teacher request was based on a realistic appraisal of the financial capabilities of the district, and represents a modest proposal to keep Acalanes District schools up with other comparable districts competing for good teachers.

"The request will keep teachers in line with the rising cost-of-living and help the economic status of the teaching profession," Casey said.

THE NEW schedule will provide a salary range of $5375-$10,400.

In approving the teachers' proposal, board member Alla Knudsen, who had served on a joint teacher-board committee this past year, observed, "The things they ask for are reasonable and approached from a realistic point of view."

Trustee William Lee, the second board member of the joint committee, stated, "I am grateful that this salary change can be made. The facts verify that it is a proper adjustment. The teacher group selected the method of adjustment."

QUESTIONED by Board President Glenn Allen as to why the proposal did not provide a percentage increase that would give experienced teachers more than a flat across-the-board, Casey replied, "Experienced teachers have had the benefit of salary adjustments in the past several years. This action will do something to improve beginning pay, too—it's time to raise the whole thing."

Superintendent Neil N. Parsons reported that the teachers and the joint board-teacher committee had studied 28 districts in five bay counties in making salary comparisons. "There has been no change in our minimum for three years although other schools have gone up," he said.

NON-CERTIFICATED personnel presented their request for a six per cent general increase for service personnel.

Speaking for the California School Employees' Association, Mrs. Marty Gillespie, secretary, presented a 15-page proposal outlining certificated employee requests for pay, vacation, overtime and holiday adjustments and policy clarifications. The board took the request under advisement.

In other action, the district's trustees:

HEARD A report by Superintendent Parsons that the board of adjustments of the County Planning Commission has requested another full commission hearing on a request by Anthony Lagiss for construction of a car wash on Pleasant Hill Road opposite Acalanes High School.

The Lagiss appeal had previously been turned down by the planning commission, the board of supervisors, and resubmitted to the board of adjustments on the recommendation of a court ruling that all forms of other appeal had not yet been exhausted.

The car wash is opposed by the high school district and neighborhood associations on the basis that it will congest traffic in the area and does not conform to the existing zoning for neighborhood service businesses only. The commission will now consider whether the project comes under the heading of neighborhood service or retail business.

Approved a continuing agreement with the City of Walnut Creek for summer use of the Las Lomas pool.

Granted tenure to 31 teachers in the district and accepted reemployment of 90 probationary teachers.

Mosquito Dist. Strike Averted

With "all our grievances solved," 14 employees of the Contra Costa County Mosquito Abatement District called off a threatened strike last week.

Directors of the district reinstated a demoted entomologist, resolved to seek a contract with the county civil service commission for hiring and agreed to pay employer's share for four workers allegedly denied social security benefits.

The men were represented by Henry L. Clarke, business manager of the Contra Costa County Employees' Association, Local 1675, AFL-CIO.

Third Priority Given Area in State Research

The possibility of a state college in Contra Costa County was revealed this week, but chances are no plans will be recommended to the legislature until 1965.

According to Robert Reardon, spokesman for the Board of California State Colleges, Contra Costa was named third in priority behind San Mateo County and the Glendale-Burbank area of Los Angeles County in state-wide college site studies completed recently.

Local sources said there had been little discussion of the possibility in recent months, but recalled mention of Ygnacio Valley in Walnut Creek or areas farther east as possible sites.

THE STUDY which listed Contra Costa as third in priority has been turned down by the Coordinating Council on Higher Education, which instead passed a resolution recommending that no new state colleges be recommended to the legislature prior to 1965, Reardon explained.

State College Board Chairman Louis H. Heilbron announced Friday that the San Mateo and Los Angeles County sites were "singled out for priority attention" at a meeting that day in Humboldt County.

Also discussed were Contra Costa, Kern and Ventura counties.

Reardon said the board's action did not contravene the recommendation of the coordinating council, but indicated areas in which state colleges are needed.

THE LIST arrived at will be used for planning purposes pending further studies.

Professional sources here indicated a possibility that the college, if it came to the county, might be located in the eastern area in order to serve portions of San Joaquin County as well.

"Proposals for a college in the Ygnacio Valley area may be dead now because of the rapid residential development there," it was pointed out.

Reardon said future determination of sites would be based on the educational needs of various areas in the state and counties.

AT THE SAME TIME, the board took action which could create that need by setting full-time enrollment ceilings at San Francisco (12,000) and San Jose (17,000) state colleges.

When these colleges reach maximum enrollment, and when similar conditions apply at Alameda State College, higher education needs for the county are expected to increase.

Perhaps looking toward that time, the board also approved a tentative master plan for Alameda State College.

WEEKEND WEATHER

"Very nice weather all weekend," the United States Weather Bureau predicts for central Contra Costa County. The weatherman proved he had heart by making the prediction with a laugh.

TOMORROW—Continued fair.

SUNDAY—Yippee! Temperatures will be rising above normal. In the afternoon, there will be a gentle westerly wind.

Masons to Make Trip to Sonoma

Orinda Masons and their families will be guests of historic Temple Lodge No. 14, F. & A.M. at Sonoma, May 25, it was announced today by Robert E. Gemetti, chairman of the affair.

He urged Orinda Masons planning to make the trip to the Valley of the Moon country with this annual Masonic pilgrimage to make their reservations promptly by calling Everett Ham at Orinda Lodge, 254-5211. Sojourning Masons and their families are also invited.

THE ORINDA officers will confer a degree at 2 p.m. at Temple Lodge Hall.

During this period, wives and families are invited to join a conducted tour of points of interest through Valley of the Moon, including a stop at Sebastiani Brothers winery.

Arrangements have been made for a group dinner at Palms Inn in El Verano, some two miles north of Sonoma in the evening.

Those who wish to make a week-end of it should make overnight reservations through Orinda Lodge without delay, Gemetti said.

Where's the Fire?

The Orinda Fire Department went out on the following calls this week:

SATURDAY—12:04 p.m., Cresta Blanca, broken water heater; 10:18 a.m., 50 Crest View Drive, rescue — car off the road.

SUNDAY—7 a.m., Highway 24 at crossroads, horse on the freeway.

MONDAY—5:40 p.m., 36 Canyon View, snake call; 12:17 a.m., Giorietta Boulevard and Moraga Way, investigation.

TUESDAY—2:30 p.m., 25 Greenwood Court, telephone wire down.

Fire Commission Meet Is Postponed

Regular meeting of the Orinda fire commission has been changed to May 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the main fire station in Orinda village.

Reason for postponing the date was because President Charles Langridge and Chief A. P. Winsor will be attending the convention of the California Fire Chiefs Association, May 22-23, at Tahoe Valley.

Originally, the meeting date was set for May 22.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Marshall, Leefe and Ehrenkrantz, Architects, A. I. A., 150 Green Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) twenty-five dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or a cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00, made payable to the order of the Moraga School District. Bids must be sealed and filed with the Clerk of the Board whose address will be The Camino Pablo School, 1111 Camino Pablo, Moraga, California, prior to 8:00 P.M. May 29, 1963, at which time they will be publicly opened and declared. Only one check need be submitted for any bid or combination of bids.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Governing Board of the Moraga School District.

Look! No Lines!

WIRELESS SYSTEM—Only two wires are strung along the top of the trim, tapered poles in this county's first underground power system. Developer James Simonds points out locale of underground wires to Marcia Anderson and David B. Heard. The development is in Lafayette off the Acalanes Road turnoff.

1st Underground Power System Is in Operation

This county's first streamlined according to James Simonds, contractor. Specially designed distribution transformers are placed atop the steel standards. These also carry street lights and the 12,000-volt electricity is carried in two overhead wires between the poles.

At the pole tops, the voltage is transformed to the household levels and the low-voltage wires then go down inside the standards. The wires are carried underground to the houses.

IT IS MORE expensive than conventional overhead wiring and wooden poles. However, the system costs less than half as much to install as complete underground system, according to Simonds.

The difference in cost between the two systems is paid for by the subdivisor or homeowner. Mark Kermit, traffic engineer, County Public Works Department, states that the lighted streets offer an advantage in safety.

The new system requires authorization by the California Public Utilities Commission before it can be installed. According to a PG&E spokesman, each case is judged on its own merit. He stated that other developers in the area are interested in installing the system. The commission imposes restrictions and limitations required for each specific subdivision.

The following menu will be served next week in all cafeterias of the Orinda Union School District.

MONDAY — Hot dog on buttered bun; corn with tomatoes; carrot sticks; peaches.

TUESDAY—Chili beans; green salad; Vienna bread; ice cream and cake.

WEDNESDAY—Chopped steak and gravy; mashed potatoes; buttered peas; fruit jello; whole wheat bread.

THURSDAY — Roast turkey with gravy; rice, green beans; cranberry sauce; celery sticks; pan roll; pear half.

FRIDAY — Fish sticks with tartar sauce; buttered corn; sliced tomatoes; apple sauce; cinnamon roll.

He who sees clearly and enlightens others minds most readily keeps his own lamp trimmed and burning.

Latin Class Has Banquet

Miramonte's annual Latin banquet was held last week featuring a widely varied program. It ranged from a production of Purcell's opera, "Dido and Aeneas," to enactments of such standard favorites as "Little Red Riding Hood."

The program, produced by, and starring the school's Latin students, followed a dinner furnished and prepared by mothers of the students.

The food was served by "slaves"—Latin I students "purchased" earlier by their "masters" from Latin II, III, and IV classes.

The entire production was directed by Mrs. Marian Calhoun, advisor of the Latin Club, and Latin teacher.

Main feature was the presentation of "Dido and Aeneas" by Latin III's and IV's, which starred Ruth Jensen as Dido, and John Campbell as Aeneas.

Other stars were Wendy Maehler, Mary Ahnger, and Alan Mills. Morgan Kinghorn was in charge of music, and shared direction of the cast with Martha Davis.

The Latin banquet is sponsored each year by the Latin Club.

President of the club this year is Brian Cartwright. During the event, black-and-white and colored films were taken which will be shown at future club activities and at next year's open house.

Moraga's Big Horse Show Is Set for Sunday

Moraga Horsemen's Association, junior and senior divisions, will hold its eighth annual horse show Sunday. It will start at 8 a.m. in the Bollinger Canyon arena.

The famed show, free and open to the public, is in the picturesque arena which the association rents from Captain and Mrs. Harold Parker.

IT IS REACHED by taking Bollinger Canyon Road, a narrow, dirt road behind St. Mary's College.

Show secretary Al Baitz, who is also Moraga's fire chief, states that a full card of events is scheduled. Featured will be the stock seat medal class to attract leading junior horsemen competing for recognition as state champion riders.

President of the Moraga Junior Horsemen is Mary Lee Brighton, Alamo, who was state Western Girl Horsemastership champion last year. Members Nancy Morrison and Patty Jo Cottle won this title in 1959 and 1960, respectively.

Entries are expected to come as far as Fresno and Sacramento, said Baitz.

A western style barbecue will be available at lunchtime for a nominal fee.

3 Miramonte Grads to Be Italy Bound

A trio of Miramonte High School graduates will study in Italy for a year, it was announced in Oregon recently.

Priscilla Devin, William McGuire and Brian Traynor will leave September 27 for a year's study at the University of Pavia, Pavia, Italy.

The three will be among 42 students from Oregon State University to attend the Italian university under the state system of higher education, sponsored Italian Study Center.

The University of Pavia is over 700 years old. It has an enrollment of 15,000. Pavia is on the Ticino River, which winds its way out of the Swiss Alps.

Bill, son of Mrs. Catherine McGuire, 24 Robert Road, Orinda, received his diploma with Miramonte's first graduating class in 1960.

Priscilla, youngest of the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Devin of Moraga, graduated in 1961.

Brian, son of the John Traynors, 29 Hacienda Circle, Orinda, graduated in 1962.

Jones' To Exhibit At Napa Art Show

Mr. and Mrs. David Clay Jones of Orinda will be among the artists exhibiting at the annual artists' May Festival, May 25-26, sponsored by the Napa Valley Art Association.

More than 100 will participate in the outdoor exhibit area and in the main pavilion of the 25th district fair grounds.

Alvarez Elected House Manager

Dave Alvarez, 25 Acacia Drive, Orinda, was recently elected house manager of Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Miramonte Mirror

Hail to the Victors in The Big, Busy Election

By KAREN STAFFORD and JACKIE EDENHOLM

If there's one square inch of wall, post or tree left bare on Miramonte's campus, we'll be surprised to see it!!! The hopeful candidates running for next year's student body offices have gone all out to advertise themselves... crews of campaigners for the different candidates can be seen scurrying around school dragging posters and clenching tacks between their teeth... searching in vain for just one vacant space to display their ingenuity at "poster-making" and to publicize their candidates' names.

By the time this is out, the results of the election will be known to everyone... but the only thing we can say right now is congratulations to those of you who were elected!

Not very "new" news... a couple of weeks ago Hap Parks had a party... many, many people, mostly wet... some dry—even though swimming was the main attraction... folksing thanks to Chas. Brock and Fred Neighbor—not to mention Bob Burkes who specializes in the "blues"... dancing to Jimmy Reed and talking... Others at the party were Steve Stuckert and Joan Dirickx, Larry Towers and Margo Peach, Dick Blair and Cathy Cole, Bob Miller and Donna Peake, Kent Miller and Candy Hacker, Bruce Nickerson and Janice Hempstead, Mike Bartlett and Mary Hansen, Larry Lahmann and Sue Violette, Bob Lyman and Allison Horn, Scott Huntley and Pat Campbell, John Lackey and Chris Campbell, George Hauer and Sharon Mekonis, Hall Clement and Sandy Carille, Gary McCosker and Joanne Warner, Steve Brush and Peggy Rose and others.

Mark the day... May 24th... for Miramonte's annual Carnival and dance. The carnival will be set up behind the cafeteria beginning at 5:30 p.m. and the dance will start around 8 p.m. in the cafeteria—May 24th—REMEMBER!!!

May 10 was a special day for a certain senior girl... as far as she knew she was only going out to dinner with her parents and Bonnie Winters to celebrate the occasion. Little did she know what was "cooking" behind the Winters' garage door as she went to pick up Bonnie... that it, until 22 of her friends threw open the door and poured out yelling, "Surprise!!!" After Jan recovered from her state of shock, they all enjoyed a dinner at Bonnie's house... Fondue... and they cooked it themselves! Some of the girls helping Janice to celebrate her 18th birthday were Leslie Lee, Bonnie Palmer, Katie Jones, Lois Moxness, Jane Donlon, Neba Jordan, Janice Schneider, Becky Horne, Marilyn Smith, Nancy Young, Carol Nelson, Kathy Knudsen and others. The rest of the evening was taken up with opening presents, Indian wrestling, eating cake and ice cream and just having a good time.

Those who did not attend the freshman dance Friday night had varied ways of entertaining themselves. Such as Alison Stampley and John Sexon, who spent the evening at the Claremont Hotel listening to the music of Louis Armstrong... Pat Anderson and Bob Young who saw the movie "David and Lisa"... and Doug Rasmutton and Pat Campbell with Barb Bagley and Brad Cleveland, who visited "The Cabale" in Berkeley.

Saturday morning bright and early new members of the Bobbies were dragged out of bed and shanghaied. They weren't ALL new members, however, since Syd Bynum and Sue Hickcox overslept and, therefore, they were shanghaied too! New members were then entertained with baseball games, swimming and breakfast accompanied by skits.

Rain, snow or sleet can't stop a real water skiing fan. And that's exactly what we can call Rob Spott and Dan DeGrassi (no, not rain, snow or sleet) but water ski fans. They must be something like that... maniac depressives???... because they spent the entire day Saturday skiing in the rain!

Mr. Tutton seems to think that the authors of gossip columns are "conservative rather than bohemian"... that was rather nice of him. But the authors of this column don't particularly consider this a gossip column... besides, we only write about interesting gossip!!!

This weekend the Greenwood Five sang at Anna Head's All-Night which was held in Sleepy Hollow. Some of those from Miramonte present to hear them were Chas. Brock, Gary Rose, Ernie Kahl, Terry Coleman, Becky Horne and Toni Brothers. The Greenwood Five, incidentally will be singing in the Monterey folk singing festival!!!

Saturday night the DeMolay dance was held in Berkeley and it was a tremendous success. Entertainment was provided by Sylvester. Some of those who attended were Ann Gompertz and Bill Easterly, Cherie Jackson and Tom Doolittle, Huston Kimrough, Trish Bascom, Tony LaSpada, Carol Mansonen, Sue Hickcox, Rob Spott, Joan Direkx, Steve Greathouse, Mike Shepherd, Joanne Boysen, Bonnie Beasley, Ann Ivanetich, Dave Hughes, Sheridan Stampley and Doug Lehmann, Mary Hansen and Mike Bartlett, Jeanne Quinn and Rich Pilgrim, and Margo Peach and Larry Tower.

Wendy Minor and Lana Dressler took a trip to Tahoe a few weeks back to look for jobs. The result? Wendy and Lana will be working all summer in the restaurant of the Tahoe Marina Lodge.

Lavenson is Upped to Major

George S. Lavenson, Jr., son of Mrs. Rosalind Kismet of 1 El Patio, Orinda, has been promoted to the rank of major at U.S. Army Tripler General Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii.

He entered the Army in September, 1953, and was stationed at the U.S. Army Dispensary, Presidio of San Francisco, California, prior to his assignment to Hawaii in August, 1961.

Major Lavenson's wife Beverly, and their three children reside in Honolulu.

'In the Shadows'

THEN IT MUST BE A CHURCH — The State Department of Motor Vehicles in Walnut Creek is hard to find, as thousands who got new license plates there recently can testify.

To make it easier, the Walnut Creek Board of Zoning Adjustment stretched city code to enable the DVM to place a directional sign pointing from North Main Street to the 1275 Pine Street address.

They found the department to fall under a classification including schools, hospitals, places of public worship and eleemosynary institutions.

However welcome the sign, the DMV is no eleemosynary institution.

As thousands who paid out hard cash for license plates recently can testify.

THE MOUNT DIABLO FIRST NATIONAL BANK in Pleasant Hill recently included a return postage guaranteed card in their ads. Some enterprising young prospective depositor mailed the bank a guinea pig, postage collect.

It cost Vice President Bill Brannan $4.25 to get the pig out of hock at the post office. At first, he thought about offering the pig to a lucky depositor, but on second thought figured this would be a detriment rather than a help to business.

The pig has been christened "Thrifty." Bill has been appointed "cleaner of the cage," and the pig is happy as a lark in the lobby of the new bank.

HERE THEY GO AGAIN . . . Members of the ill-fated Walnut Hills Country Club, which recently folded, are looking forward to their first dinner dance under their new name, Relix Valley Country Club, under new manager-owner Dr. Robert Alberer.

With big expansion plans, including the addition of tennis courts, and the acquisition of a first-rate chef, Mel Hembree, looks like this time they'll make it.

STAN WHITE, Lafayette certified public accountant, is one person who believes in fast action, if a civic problem is at stake . . . Just recently White was walking along Mt. Diablo Boulevard when he did a double-take at a news vending stand that had been placed by one newspaper (not The Sun) in the grassy Plaza area. Properly enraged, White fired off an "I want an answer" letter to the newspaper's publisher. Well, action wasn't long in forthcoming. The next day the news stand was removed from the park and the day after that White had his letter of apology from the publisher. Incidentally, White is the sparkplug who proposed to the Chamber of Commerce that Lafayette's new sidewalks, soon to be built, should have a color tone to them. A survey is now being taken in regard to White's proposal.

LET IT SPREAD . . . Like the well-remembered line from "The Women" uttered by the secretary who was tired of doing exercises to reduce her bottom, students in Pleasant Hill's high schools are tired of fighting a losing battle with the weather.

After having to postpone the annual clean-up day TWICE, they shrugged their shoulders at the litter carelessly dumped by citizens and decided to forget the whole thing until next year . . .

PAMPERED SERVICEMEN . . . Mothers whose sons are trying to decide which branch of the military to choose might be interested to learn of the lengths which the Air Corps goes to make things pleasant for the boys in blue. The matter came to light when officials in a local city, making arrangements for a parade, phoned the area installations asking for their participation.

They all responded graciously, with the Air Force making one definite stipulation: If their men would be away from the base during a meal time, a lunch must be provided for each man—and it must be a HOT lunch!

SUPER THREE — Walnut Creek's superintendent designate, Elmo Gutieri, has sought the position over the years while working under ex-superintendent Sheldon Rankin and superintendent designate Dr. Richard Fickel. His very longevity, say some, worked against Gutieri, who apparently overcame a reputation as one of "Rankin's men" to get the post.

Meanwhile, Dick Fickel is still looking for the right offer among many made him since his "resignation." Talk is he's set his sights high and won't be disappointed.

At the same time, Associate Superintendent Doug Rose will fill his newly created position until Fickel and Gutieri step out and in officially July 1.

VENETIAN LADIES—Judy Whitcombe (left) plays Portia and Judy Ackerman plays Narissa in the Dramateurs' production of "The Merchant of Venice." The group's first venture into Shakespeare opened at the Lafayette Playhouse last weekend. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Dramateurs 'Merchant' Is Splendid Shakespeare

Mr. Shakespeare should know He is Bassanio, acted tall, dark, handsomely and honestly by Gene Ledbetter. The father-son duo of Rolfe Williams, senior and junior, both fit their Shakespearean shoes as do others in the cast. They include Bob Weber, Bill Kuhlman, Ed Aszklar, Bill Pritchard, Ray Howard, George Kasten, Oscar Busch, Cliff Lowe and Vicki West. Last but not least the latter lady who flashes eyes and smile as the dark-haired daughter of Shylock.

THE GAOLER is played by Gilmore Van Stone and attendants by Dennis Palin and Ken Vargas. A couple of Elizabethan ditties including the famed "Greensleeves" are plinked and sung by minstrels Cheron Williams and Oscar Busch.

If you've been lukewarm to the Bard thus far, here's your chance to find out what makes for all his fanfare and dedicated followers.

To see or not to see is not the question. You'll be lucky if you can get tickets.

In answer to rave reviews and praises plenty, Dramateurs have decided to extend the play for a full six-week run to accommodate the anticipated record crowds.

Call 254-3909 weekdays for early reservations to avoid disappointment.

Obituaries
HENRY K. NOURSE
Funeral services were held Tuesday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek, for Henry K. Nourse, 82, who died Saturday in a Pleasant Hill convalescent hospital.

A native of California, Mr. Nourse lived at 81 Castle Crest Road, Walnut Creek. He was a resident of Walnut Creek for 47 years. Survivors include his daughter, Mrs. Barbara Adams, Daly City; three sons, Henry, Jr., Burlingame, John and Robert of Walnut Creek; a brother, Charles, Oakland; a sister, Mrs. Grace Barber, Live Oak, and seven grandchildren.

CLARENCE A. BROUGH
Clarence A. (Jack) Brough of Orinda died May 11. Services were held Tuesday morning at the Chapel of the Oaks, Oakland. Requiem Mass followed at Santa Maria Church, Orinda.

Survivors include his wife, Gertrude E. Brough, and two sons. They are John M. Brough of Walnut Creek and Richard W. Brough of Connecticut.

Six grandchildren, a brother and sister in New York also survive. Brough, a native of Vermont, was formerly vice president of Pacific National Fire Insurance Company and the Security Connecticut Group.

DR. JERRY V. HOLCOMBE
Services were held Tuesday for Dr. Jerry V. Holcombe of Orinda. He died in Oakland on May 11.

Dr. Holcombe's survivors include his wife, Ardine M. Holcombe; son, Dr. Kenneth G. Holcombe of Walnut Creek; stepson, High R. Hogan, and four grandchildren.

Dr. Holcombe was a member of the Alameda County Dental Society and Yerba Buena Lodge No. 403, F. & A.M. Funeral services were under the auspices of the lodge. Interment was private.

JUDY ACKERMAN as Nerissa, the Waiting Gentlewoman, is a perfect foil for Portia. The two women, gorgeously gowned with umpteen costume changes, go together like the stars and moon. The hero is well picked, too.

Board Of Supervisors

The county's board of supervisors took the following action at Tuesday's meeting:

VOTING MACHINES—Received five bid proposals. Referred all facts and figures to the county clerk, county administrator, and the board's administrative and finance committee for further study and report back to the main group.

MT. DIABLO BOULEVARD—Awarded contract to Bay Western Electric Contractors, Richmond, for traffic signal modification and street and lighting island lighting. Firm's bid of $33,036 was lowest of three submitted.

HIDDEN VALLEY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION—Referred petition from Lafayette residents to Flood Control District which then will start preparing plans for solution of storm drainage problems.

CORONER—Authorized Dr. L. H. Fraser to attend American Medical Association meeting in Atlantic City, June 12-20.

PROCLAMATION—Next week to be East Bay Water Week.

WILDLIFE—County to enter agreement with federal and state agencies for the control of predatory animals to protect domestic livestock and poultry, and exterminate skunks.

SAN RAMON CREEK BRIDGE—Approved plans and specifications for repair of bridge's west abutment. Bids to be received June 11.

CULVERT—Accepted contract of completion that work has been satisfactorily accomplished on concrete box culvert on Miranda Avenue in Alamo area.

CITY-COUNTY THOROUGHFARE SYSTEM—Approved these additions, Happy Valley Road from Mt. Diablo Boulevard to Bear Creek Road, and Upper Happy Valley Road from State Route 75 to Happy Valley Road.

PATROL BOAT—Approved plans for sheriff's new patrol boat. Bids for 31-foot craft will be received at 11 a.m., June 18.

MORAGA ORDINANCE—Adopted Ordinance No. 1719 Adopted Ordinance No. 1719 which rezones land in the Moraga area (request of planning commission and Russell Bruzzone).

Kennel Club Show Entries Accepted Now

Registration for the 19th annual All Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trial of the Contra Costa County Kennel Club has opened, according to B. B. Jeffrey, Concord, secretary of the sponsoring club.

The show will be held Sunday, June 9, at Diablo Valley College in the Concord - Pleasant Hill area. The event will be unbenched and staged on the college's football field.

Judging will be in six groups: sporting, working, hound, toy, terrier and non-sporting. Competition also will be offered in five obedience classes.

Entry blanks may be obtained from the show superintendent, Mrs. Bernice Behrendt, 470 - 38th Avenue, San Francisco 21.

Entry lists close at noon, May 27. Competition also will be offered in junior showmanship for boys and girls between the ages of eight and 16 years.

Foreign Or Domestic, They Move

A Renault Dauphine was sold by Gail Lawson, 75 Jackson Way, Alamo, to the first person who called after she placed a single want-ad in The Sun.

And in Lafayette, W. T. Teuton was selling his late-model Ford from his home at 3301 Sweet Drive, after a single Sun want-ad advertised his wares.

Fast results like these can be yours primarily because: A single Sun want ad appears in all five Sun publications: the 59,000-circulation Sun Shopping News, and the four subscription newspapers, The Lafayette Sun, The Orinda Sun and The Pleasant Hill Sun.

A 14-word ad costs as little as $3.20 for a four-week run—with a pro-rated refund when you sell right away!

Big College District Crisis

The Contra Costa Junior College District faces a financial crisis unless new sources of revenue become available not later than the 1963-64 school year, Dr. George J. Faul, director of Contra Costa College in San Pablo, told the district's trustees Monday night.

A report prepared by himself and DVC Director Karl O. Drexel, which he presented, stressed the fact that the county's assessed valuation is not keeping pace with burgeoning enrollments and increased costs.

At the same time the state's contribution to junior colleges has been steadily declining. Some of the other salient points made in the report are:

1. The district now has 5900 fulltime students enrolled. This is expected to jump to 6400 this fall, and to 10,100 by 1967-68.

2. Although the district could receive as much as $921,865 in Proposition 1-A bond money, which was voted last year, the formula for distribution has not been decided upon and revenue from this source should not be expected for 1963-64.

3. TEACHER LOADS of 29.2 students per teacher at CCC and 31.7 at DVC are high, particularly since many programs by state law limit teacher-pupil ratio.

4. The proposed North Alameda County Junior College District, which will be voted upon next month, could be a mixed blessing. (CCC now has 450 Alameda students.)

CCC could lose all of its Alameda County students, but if Berkeley and Albany do not join the district CCC enrollment would increase by 500 students a year and assessed valuation per student would drop sharply. DVC will discontinue enrolling Oakland students next year.

6. School plant at both colleges is being used 11 months of the year and classroom utilization is the highest in California. Despite maximum utilization, however, DVC's classroom situation will become critical next year.

The report predicts that capital outlay, down to 25 per cent of total budget expenses for 1963-64, will drop to 5.6 per cent by 1967-68.

THE POSSIBILITY of having an outside firm of consultants examine the district's financial position and make recommendations for the future, suggested by Board President George R. Gordon, will be explored by the college directors. They promised a report at the board's meeting on May 27.

It will cost an estimated $6,116,308 to operate the Contra Costa Junior College District and its two colleges at San Pablo and Concord for 1963-64, according to a preliminary budget taken under submission by the district governing board last night.

The figure is $74,995 lower than the current budget. MAJOR EXPENDITURES include $3,223,425 for instructional program salaries, $473,687 for operation, $126,283 for maintenance, $250,794 for fixed charges, and $178,170 for community services.

Capital outlay items include a of 700 machines. The county could enter into a lease arrangement with this firm, which would be $99,497 for the first year and then work down to $61,849 for the 19th year.

4. Shop Voting Machine Company of New York said it could provide the county with 850 machines at a cost of $1,642.74 a unit, or $1,396,329 for the batch. 5. Seiscor offered 900 machines for a total cost of $1,350,000, plus $13,000 for freight.

6. COYLE VOTING Machine Corporation suggested the county purchase 700 of its machines for a cost of $470,000. A lease arrangement could also be worked out by this firm, too.

The county is considering the purchase of voting machines because the present-day antiquated system greatly delays the tallying and makes it necessary for many hundreds of precinct workers to be employed at vote time.

National Realtor Week To Be Observed Here

HOT-OFF-THE-PRESS—Listings are drawn from Board of Realtors presses in their Walnut Creek offices by Commercial Multiple Listing Chairman Hugh Flynn (right), while (on left) Supervisor Nielsen and Multiple Listing Service Chairman Al Jones check the final product.

Now Is Time to Buy, Says Henry

(Ed. Note: The following article, by Contra Costa Board of Realtors President Ray Henry, was written expressly for Realtor Week.)

A young man's fancy may turn to thoughts of love in springtime but a couple's thoughts usually turn to homes. And from what I can gather from talks with realtors across the country, they're doing it more this year than last. In brief, housing demand is starting to go up.

Home seekers know that now is the time to buy.

The reasons for this are:

1. Mortgage conditions are excellent; lenders have an abundant supply of money, interest rates are lower, and the down payments being required are generally small.

2. Prices this year are lower than last both for new and existing homes, especially for existing structures.

3. The general economic climate is improving. Unemployment is slightly down, many economic indicators are pointing up, and the international political scene, though still shaky, is far better than it was last year.

4. Investors are willing to make mortgage loans for individual purchases of existing homes in neighborhoods that have been neglected.

A changing pattern is becoming evident in residential housing. With a growing number of households headed by the elderly and the very young, new forms of ownership such as condominium are becoming prevalent.

The trend in commercial property is for more concentration. Consumers want to purchase their goods at convenient, relatively near places where it's easy to park and easy to shop. As a consequence, strip areas are becoming vacant areas.

The same holds true for older structures housing office space. Tenants are moving into modern buildings with air conditioning and other up-to-date improvements.

Automation has affected industrial property. One story plants able to house enormous machines are becoming more common. To give their employees parking places, industrialists are building these plants in outlying areas. On the other hand, land offered for industrial use in redeveloped areas is available in increasing amounts in many cities.

The men reporting these trends, realtors, are members of your local board of realtors and the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Membership in the Contra Costa Board of Realtors, and hence in NAREB, is based on a broker's demonstrated competence and his willingness to pledge himself to govern his business conduct by NAREB's strict code of ethics.

This code, which defines a realtor's relationship to his clients, to other brokers, and to the general public, is based on the philosophy of the Golden Rule. Its requirements are much stricter than state license laws. NAREB and its affiliated, professional groups in general, industrial, and rural land brokerage, property management, and counseling offer realtors continuing opportunities to broaden their knowledge.

Thousands of realtors each year avail themselves of these chances to acquire additional professional skills.

Moreover, there is a strong tradition among realtors calling for the donation of their special abilities in public service.

In short, we consider the term realtor to denote the professional in the real estate field.

A profile of realtor leadership was provided by a recent study of the background—educational and professional—of more than 3000 of our members.

Of the men surveyed, seven out of 10 were in the profession for over 10 years, while only 7 per cent were in the business for less than five years. In addition, many realtors have fathers and grandfathers who were engaged in real estate.

The same survey reported that, of those interviewed, seven out of 10 attended college, three of these had a degree, and one went on to a graduate study. Also, three of four attended university extension courses, four of five took state association courses, four of five took state association courses, nine of 10 went to classes offered by their own board, and two of three attended courses offered by the state licensing commission.

It is interesting to note, too, that of the men answering the questionnaire, two out of three belong to a public service commission or a civic organization.

It is to spread awareness of the realtor as the professional in the real estate field, as a good neighbor and a constructive force in community affairs, that the period of May 12-18 has been designated as Realtor Week.

We are glad to welcome all like-minded persons and groups to share our annual rededication to public service.

Explorer Scouts Named To Attend Utah Confab

Two boys from the Lafayette-Orinda-Moraga area were recently chosen to attend the Latter-Day Saints International Explorer Scout Conference, August 23-28. It will be held at Brigham Young University, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Representing this area will be David Ferguson, 16, and Randy Krenek, 15. Both are Miramonte High School students, and members of Explorer Scout Troop 249.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Ferguson, 92 Devin Drive, Moraga. He is president of his priesthood quorum and has won many church awards. He has a star rank in the scout troop.

Randy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aymond Krenek, 28 Hall Drive, Orinda. He has also won many church awards and holds a first class rank in the troop.

The two boys will participate with over 500 other Explorers from all over the world in the five-day confab.

Each post was allowed to select two top delegates. They were chosen on the basis of "outstanding leadership" and "spiritual strength."

The delegates will report back to their post details of the conference. They will participate in skill competition in a choice of two of 50 skills; enjoy "super-activities" such as sightseeing and side trips; explore vocational specialties; and receive training in Explorer administration activities.

Owen Freeman is post advisor for the troop.

"Both David and Randy are officers in the priesthood teacher's quorum which has the responsibility of preparing the sacrament for each Sunday's services and to provide junior partners for elders of the church in visiting the membership each month. They have fulfilled their responsibilities in excellent fashion," said Bishop E. Y. Wells of the Lafayette-Orinda ward bishopric of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Walnut Creek stake.

Realtors Pledge Greater Community Service Here

Reporting that members of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors are now helping the community through work with various city or county public service units, Ray Henry, president, today pledged an intensification in the contribution of local realtors to civic affairs.

Henry's promise of an increase in the assumption of community responsibility came as the board marked Civic Education and Informational Media Day in its observance of Realtor Week—May 12-18.

Sponsored by the National Association of Real Estate Boards, with which the Central Contra Costa County board is affiliated, Realtor Week is being celebrated by 73,000 realtors throughout the nation as part of their continuing educational program to acquaint the public with the professional service they render in real estate transactions.

"ONE OF the hallmarks of the professional man in any community is the disinterested service he gives to his fellow citizens over and above his daily work," the realtor president observed.

"By accepting appointment—in many cases without remuneration—on various city commissions, service and charitable groups in which their specialized knowledge equips them to be particularly effective, central county realtors are living up to the best professional tradition. This realtor contribution to our area will increase in the months ahead."

Henry gave the following breakdown of the civic contributions being made by realtors through their membership in public service groups:

THE PUBLIC affairs committee, J. Elton Smith, chairman, representing the property owner and the industry in matters of municipal and county government, planning and zoning matters, legislative and taxation matters, industrial and commercial development and chamber of commerce activity.

The leading realtor pointed out that the community services committee, Lee Scarlett, chairman, sponsors an annual high school essay contest on "The Home Is the Heart and Hope of the Nation," home town speech contest, and a speakers' bureau to speak on a variety of subjects before business, civic and service organizations throughout the area.

Realtor Board Names Reigh to Assist Jernigan

Edgar A. Reigh, former manager of the printing department, Contra Costa Board of Realtors, has been appointed to the position of administrative assistant for the board.

Announcement of Reigh's promotion was made by Ray Henry, board president, and Roger Jernigan, executive vice-president.

Growth of the Board of Realtors, in step with the phenomenal growth of the central county area, necessitated employing an assistant to the executive vice president, according to Henry.

Henry added that in the past year the board has expanded its public relations program, civic and community services and taken an active part in county, state and national legislation and taxation matters.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Reigh has been with the Board of Realtors for the past two years. Prior to his military service (United States Navy), Reigh was employed in the offices of a large industrial firm in New York.

Active in church work, Reigh has taught a group of teens in Youth for Christ, coached baseball teams and participated in other youth activities of his church.

Reigh, 24, is married and resides in Walnut Creek with his wife, Madeline, and daughters, Sheila, 3, and Diana, 1.

Area's Realtors Will Emphasize Professionalism

Sunday marked the opening of Realtor Week, which will continue through May 18, Ray Henry, president of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors, announced last week.

Realtors from this area will join with the more than 73,000 across the country this year under the slogan "A Home Means Happiness—Happiness with a Realtor" in an effort to emphasize their services and to make clearer the distinction between a Realtor and others in the real estate business.

"A Realtor," Henry said, "is pledged to follow a strict code of ethics that is enforced through the local board of the National Association of Real Estate Boards of which he is a member. The primary obligation of the Realtor under this code is to keep the interests of both the buyer and the seller uppermost in mind during a transaction."

BY THE MOTTO, "A Home Means Happiness," Realtors are stating that security, freedom to live in the manner chosen, and room to live that way are all an accepted part of home ownership.

But home ownership is not available to all people in every country.

"In fact," he said, "the ease of owning a home in the United States is unique throughout the world."

"By adding the phrase, 'Happiness with a Home Means a Realtor' we are explaining that by doing business through a Realtor, with his background of experience, integrity and competence, the public is assured of superior service and satisfaction," he explained.

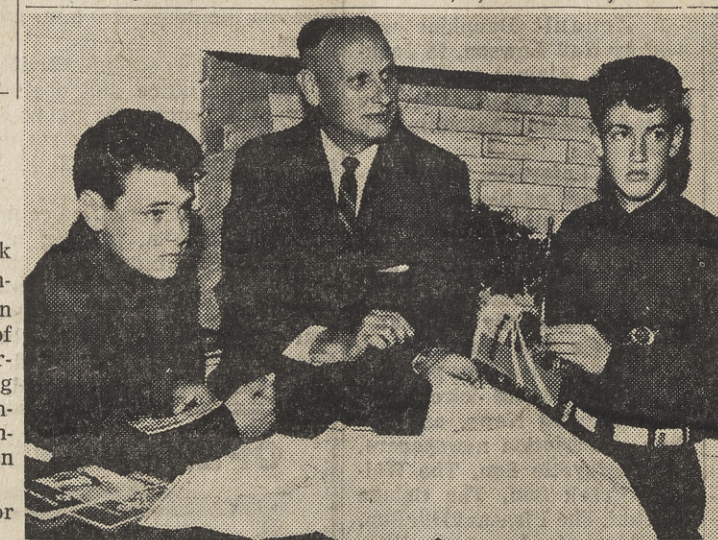

Events scheduled for Realtor Week include:

Open house to the public to visit the facilities of the Board of Realtors; education and press day; Realtor Pledge Day; Home Ownership and Civic Day.

THE TERM REALTOR was adopted by NAREB in 1916, and members have exclusive right to use the term, which is registered as a collective mark (similar to a trademark) in the United States Patent Office.

The parent organization, founded in 1908 in Minneapolis, Minn., has offices in Chicago, Illinois, and Washington, D.C.

Realtors are kept aware of changes in real estate law, mortgage rates, buying trends and innumerable other business factors, through publications of the association's professional staff which maintains close contact with developments throughout the country.

Realtors Make Pledge Monday

Realtors of Central Contra Costa County reaffirmed their dedication to ethical and professional service when they repeated their Realtor's pledge Monday, Ray Henry, president Contra Costa Board of Realtors, announced.

The pledging is one of the official acts in which Realtors participate during Realtor Week, May 12-18. The Contra Costa Board of Realtors is joining hundreds of the 1445 boards which belong to the National Association of Real Estate Boards to celebrate this annual period.

"The Realtor's Pledge is more significant than most people realize," president Henry commented.

"First of all, it means that the person taking this pledge is more than just a broker or salesman—he is a Realtor. This affirms that he is dedicated to professional and ethical service through a Code of Ethics which is based on the Golden Rule."

"If a man refuses to subscribe to this Code of Ethics," the Realtor president said, "then he cannot receive the designation of Realtor. The public, generally, is not aware of this. Only members of the local board and NAREB have the right to use this term which is registered as a collective mark (similar to a trademark) in the U.S. Patent Office."

The president added that code is enforced by his board through the activities of a Professional

Conduct and Court of Ethicsclients by building my knowledge and competence;

The text of the Realtor's Pledge is as follows:

I Pledge Myself:

To protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it;

To be honorable and honest in all dealings;

To seek better to represent my

To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule;

To serve well my community, and through it my country;

To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its lofty ideals."

The press, radio and educational will be honored at Monday's special program.

Proclamations Herald 'Week'

(The following proclamation has been made and signed by representatives of the cities of Concord, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill and Contra Costa County.)

INASMUCH AS the Contra Costa Board of Realtors is joining with the other 1445 constituent boards of the National Association of Real Estate Boards throughout the country in observing Realtor Week from May 12-18; and

WHEREAS Contra Costa Board of Realtors has contributed and is contributing freely of its professional knowledge and skill to the successful functioning of many community agencies, commissions, and boards charged with essential duties; and

WHEREAS, Realtors are among the foremost professional groups in the city in advancing our civic life through membership and work in service clubs, citizens' organizations, and groups dedicated to cultural and charitable purposes; and

WHEREAS much of the progress of this community is due in large measure to the competence with which Realtors have taken and are taking part in the commercial and industrial growth of our city; and

WHEREAS the high degree of home ownership enjoyed by our citizens has been achieved with the skilled help of the Realtors of the community; and

WHEREAS, Realtor activities have been conducted in accordance with a Code of Ethics that requires a higher standard of performance than that imposed by law alone;

NOW, THEREFORE, I do hereby proclaim the week of May 12-18 to be Realtor Week and urge our citizens to unite with the Contra Costa Board of Realtors in its observance.

Guilieri Named Walnut Creek Superintendent

Veteran school teacher and administrator Elmo Guilieri has been named superintendent of the Walnut Creek Elementary School District.

Guilieri, who will receive his doctorate in education June 8 from the University of California, has signed a three-year contract for $16,000 per year.

A teacher and/or administrator in the district since 1947, Guilieri replaces Dr. Richard Fickel who submitted his resignation several months ago.

Posies and Gardeners Turn Out

By YVONNE MAUZEY
376-4083

SPRING IS THE TIME you find Moragans in the yard weeding, fertilizing and spraying; one neighbor trying to thin out the dense jungle of a specific variety as another neighbor tries valiantly to get the identical variety to grow.

Have you noticed spring wild flowers along the road? Golden poppies and blue lupines, purples, and yellows, gold and white and an array of greens from yellow to a green that is almost black dot the wayside. Breaking through the sod after the soaking slimy adobe has half-way dried to an adobe rock.

We had a dreary Mother Day with most of the neighbors taking mother someplace or other. Though one of our neighbors just went off and left the men folks to shift for themselves. Jane Putnam and daughter Pat with photographer friend Lee Combs and her family were off to Carmel and to visit San Simeon Castle over Mothers Day. This sounds like a wonderful Mothers Day gift and relaxation from the daily grind.

TRAVELING MAN: Lots of people traveling. Bus Costa was out of town last week flying to Los Angeles and to Apple Valley, on business for Kaiser, and flying home just in time for Mothers Day and to join the Ertolas and the rest of the clan for Mothers Day dinner at the Brittany Inn.

GEO. and Vienna Johnson and family taking a trip to Fresno for the weekend. Geo. is on the company bowling team. The L. A. team and Moraga teams are having their bowl-off in Fresno, a common meeting place. So Geo. is taking along his own routing section.

SURPRISE! SURPRISE! on Bobby Stevenson. The Thursday afternoon bridge group on Lynch Ct. really surprised Bobby for her birthday Thursday. The gals: Kitty Hall, Jean Bergstedt, Phyllis Hayward, Ann Troy, Daphne Taylor, and Doris Miles, bought Bobby the bean pot that she has been wanting for over a year.

She kept hinting to her family for each occasion and they kept passing up the hints, so the gals decided to buy it for her. Bobby asks "How did you all know I wanted a bean pot?" While everyone roars, with laughter. The party was held at the Hall residence, with a luscious cake baked by Kitty for the occasion.

THE HEATS ON: Yes the heat's on in the Moraga Ranch Swim Club, so the members that aren't polar bears can start their swimming again! Guess everyone will be glad of this fact, being the weather has started to be nice again, and swim time is upon us. Buz would like to thank all of you who turned out for weed day! Everyone really pitched in.

CONGRATULATIONS: to Keith Tice who has recently been promoted to Ass't Vice President of the Central Valley National Bank.

Condolences: to the Bergstedt family: Jean and Wes have sure had their share lately. They buried Jean's uncle last week after a prolonged illness.

BACK ON HIS FEET: DeWayne Mauzey is back on his feet and kicking again in more ways than one, after the accident to his feet during ball session at school, and a week of hobbling around and doctors appointments.

Speaking of kicking, the Moraga Horsemen's Assn. will hold its annual horsemanship in Bollinger Canyon Sunday. All of the horses will be kicking up quite a bit of dust. No kidding! All you new neighbors who haven't gone to the annual horsemanship, should make a point of going to see this one, and to see what these kids can do with their horses. The horse show is free, just everybody come! Refreshments and outdoor barbecue dinners are served at a nominal fee. So let's make it a family day.

SIGNS OF SPRING: Don't forget to all come to the Community Club affair tomorrow night. There will be a buffet and dancing. If you don't already have your tickets you may buy them at the door. Let's all turn out and make this a grand affair. Phyllis Lendrum and her committee have been working like beavers on this project, to be held at the Carroll Club tomorrow night from 9 to 1.

SLEEP OUT ANYONE? An overnight and get acquainted is planned by Girl Scout Troop #22. Troops 34 and 22 have merged to form a new Cadet troop. The leader is Betty Terrell, with Nell Prescott and Gloria Lorraine assisting. The new troop will include girls from 7th thru 9th grades. May 24th has been set for the overnight in Redwood Park.

ANOTHER SURPRISE! Jack Prescott was really surprised for his birthday Saturday night by Betty and Jack Terrell, Elbe and Al Haskell and some business associates and their wives. Comical gifts were brought by the group. Al Haskell decided he had kept a borrowed book long enough, and decided to return it in the guise of a birthday present. All in all the group had a very pleasant evening while stuffing themselves with barbecued turkey. Nell was so exhausted from the excitement, she slept half the next day for Mothers Day.

SPEAKING OF MOTHERS DAY. I received a cherished bouquet from my little neighbor Cathy Gorow. She spent a long time scouting her yard for clover blossoms, and brought me this fragrant smelling bouquet held out in the tiny chubby hands, picked just for me. A wonderful Mothers Day present that was prompted by nothing but love.

G. & S. SECOND ROUND: Mrs. Helen Holzinger, music teacher for our school district, and students will present the second performance of "H.M.S. Pinafore" at the old Moraga School tonight at 8 p.m. Players in the new cast are: Jim Terrell, Tom Hermansen, Don Breidenbach, Bruce McClish, Tom Reeder, John Reinhart, Kristine Davis, Susan Graham & Cynthia Prescott. Mmes Hermansen, DeMann and Stocking deserve a big THANK YOU! for working on costumes for both of the plays. . . . Walt Mast for his set designs, & Betty Dye and Ruth Freitas our makeup artists. Thanks a million to Harry Wedgewood for his work on the curtains and the flats. . . . To E' Lane Thaxter for her work on the Programs. . . . And Many Thanks to Mrs. DeMann for coming to the rescue in making up three middy blouses between 3 and 7 p.m. for Friday night's performance.

Did you know these kids have been getting to school at 8 a.m. many mornings for rehearsals? You have all done a wonderful job, and Mrs. Holzinger has taken a job that not many would try with this age group. Congrats to all.

Mrs. Holzinger informs me they sold out all the tickets at the first performance. So many people showed up they had to start reselling the tickets already taken in. There was approximately 600 in the audience. And a marvelous audience it was.

FIRST COMMUNION: Many of our neighbors received their first communion Saturday at Santa Maria. Some local residents of those present were: Bradley Ertola, Dennis Snarr, Laurie Snarr, Kathy Torchio, Robin Accomazzo, Richard Weber, Michael Lapointe, Michael Marini, Paul Holmesmann, Jim Merlone, Cathy Bisiar, Tina Nieland, and Lindi Standey.

The Nielands had a Communion Breakfast at Mike Lynn's for Tina, with thirteen guests present, following the communion.

All the Live-long Day

By DICK MURDOCK

When SP fireman William F. Kennerley a lights from his switch engine on Saturday morning, he promptly drives to his Walnut Creek home and promotes himself to railroad president. In fact, he serves in all capacities down to section hand. Bill lives at 1330 El Curtola Boulevard with his wife, Emmv, and two children, a boy and girl, 11 and 9, respectively. Their basement houses an elaborate "O" gauge model railroad representing the SP from Ogden to Oakland.

"Steam replicas only," says Kennerley.

EIGHT ENGINES ply the rails, each numbered after the full-sized counterpart upon which Bill performed some particularly memorable service.

There's the 3679, a powerful freight engine. He was fireman on this big steamer for 12 hours Christmas Day, 1955. Then the 4237, a cab-ahead Mallet like the one on display at Sacramento's station-side green.

This copy represents the first engine of this type Bill ever worked on. His first pay trip was on the 4448, one of the famed "Daylight" streamlined passenger engines that were originally painted a pleasing mixture of orange, yellow and black, just as the real engine was in her last days.

"Each of the five others," says Bill, "encompasses a special memory. You know, helps to keep alive my days of happier railroading."

THEY'RE AMAZINGLY accurate models (3/4 inch to the foot). Take the 4448's tender. Even the tiny journal box covers open!

FIREMAN'S HOLIDAY— A real life SP fireman, Kennerley creates his own line in the basement of his Walnut Creek home.

Proof of his proficiency lies in the number of awards won at various conclaves of the National Model Railroad Association. SP lounge car 2975 took first in Cleveland, 1961, photos of which were later featured in a national model railroad magazine.

DOMES CAR SP 3603 aced the field at the Pacific Coast Chapter's convention in Phoenix, 1962. Mt. Marcy, an observation car, won in Pasadena, 1960, as did Bill's model of the Elko, Nevada, depot. His SP diner 10160 successfully competed in San Jose, 1956.

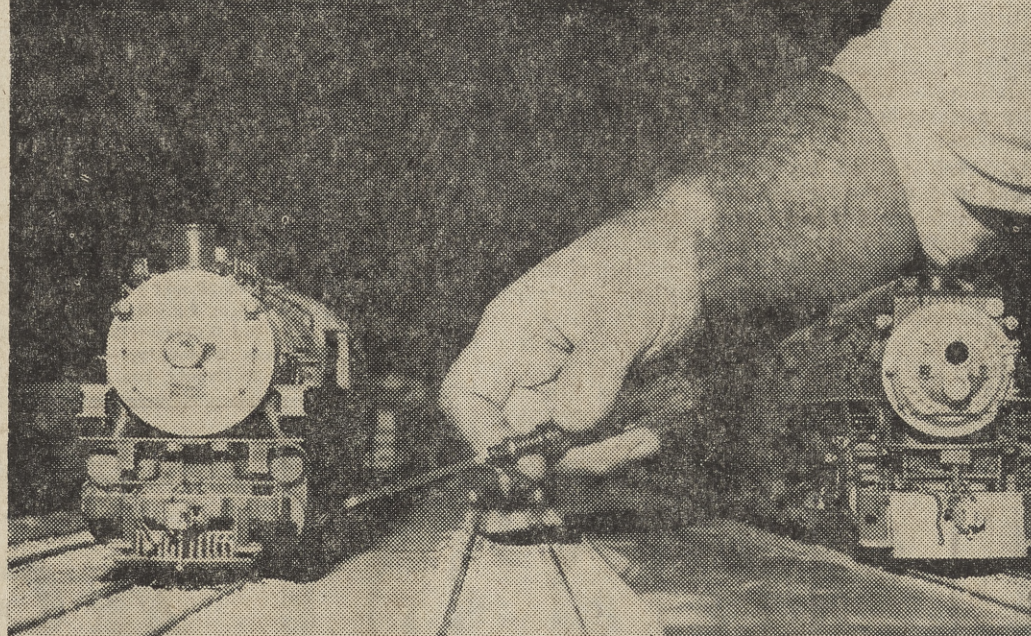

Rails eye-catching progress around the 23 x 35 foot basement at various levels. Mrs. Kennerley added her touch in the form of backdrop scenery painted on the walls. For a more pleasing effect, Bill rounded the basement corners.

Besides artistry, Emmy also built a trackside residence that took first place at the 1960 Pasadena affair. Even the tiny bed sports a Rock Island railroad bedspread!

Four inches from one wall, a two dimension profile—cutouts from photographs and sketches—accurately represent a portion of downtown Ogden, complete with firetrucks, pedestrians and traffic.

THE STATIONS between Ogden and Oakland, industries and yard tracks included, are Elko, Carlin, Reno, Truckee and Richmond.

GIANT AT PLAY—No, it's just the sure hand of Bill Kennerley making minor adjustment on old 3769, a powerful freight engine modeled after one Bill fired all Christmas Day, 1955. He took his first pay trip on (right) 4448, one of the famed "Daylight" passenger specials.

The rolling stock is equally impressive—80 freight cars, 16 passenger and three express refrigerator cars.

Each intricate assembly he accomplished with amazing accuracy and perfect detail. The diners, sleepers and lounge cars are complete down to the inside furnishings. He also does the painting and it's superb.

the layout when we bought the a switching movement or two is place in December of '52. But I an indication, Bill assures, that the job was done according to strictest Kennerley standards.

When asked why he still railroads with the romance gone, the answer is logical. "How else could I get measurements? Say I see a Pullman coach I like on the storage track in Oakland. That's my next model, and every time the switcher pauses, out comes a ruler and pencil."

So, like the postman on his day off, Bill's railroading really begins at home. "Yes," says he, "it's fun to be president, or car builder, or dispatcher—or even section hand, for that matter!"

"May want to run a Presidential Special at any moment." THE SIGNING of the guest book by an amateur engineer having successfully completed

Yale Honors 4 Local Boys

Yale University and its alumni have singled out four Miramonte boys for various honors.

Three of them are for scholarships for the coming academic year, and one for the annual Yale Book Award, given by the university's local alumni association to an outstanding junior boy.

While two of the boys winning scholarships will not be using them, since they are going elsewhere to school next year, having three of its students named by Yale is a distinct honor, according to Principal James Lewis.

Senior Brian Cartwright, who will be attending Yale, has been named for a $1700 scholarship, a $350 loan, and a $400 job to earn additional expense money.

MIKE SOREM, who will be going to Stanford rather than Yale, won a $250 scholarship and a $400 job.

Ken White, who will be attending Harvey Mudd College on a scholarship rather than Yale, won a $600 scholarship, a $200 loan, and a $400 job.

Junior student Mike Yedidia, designated "outstanding" by Miramonte's scholarship committee on behalf of the Yale alumni committee, was honored with a finely bound edition of "The Papers of Ben Franklin, Volume I."

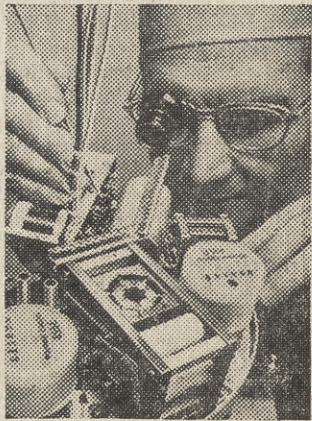

Mike was selected on the basis of his academic achievement and an extracurricular contribution at Miramonte.

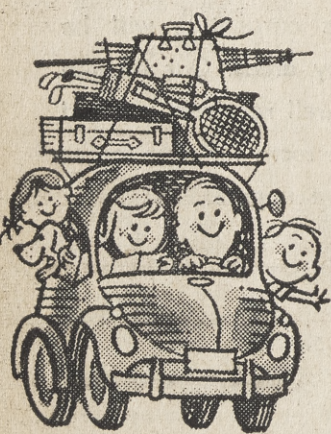

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

The telephone technician at the right is testing a tiny part of a newly developed undersea phone cable. These cables are designed to function perfectly at the bottom of the sea for twenty years or more so the tests must be rigorous. One such test determines if the cable can withstand the tremendous pressures found on the ocean floor. It uses helium and is so exacting that it's capable of detecting a leak so tiny that the escaping gas would take 26 years to fill a thimble. It's care like this that helps us to bring you the best possible telephone service.

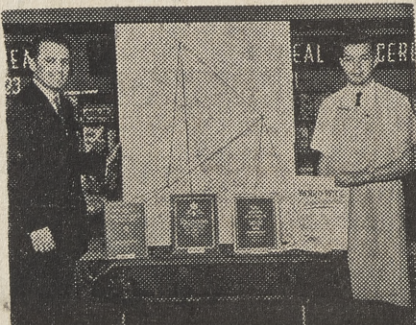

Interesting fact: At the beginning of 1962, all of Russia had only 455,000 more telephones than New York City.

Going to Disneyland? While you're there, you can also take a fascinating trip across the United States. How? Just drop by the Bell System's popular exhibit and see the Circarama film, "America the Beautiful." Filmed by the Walt Disney Studios, Circarama surrounds you on a giant 360-degree screen and takes you from "sea to shining sea." Bird Watchers See 40 Varieties 'Downtown'

Barbara Bedayn's bird class made a rather surprising discovery in Orinda Monday morning.

They found it was not necessary to go far afield in order to observe a great many wild birds. Some 40 varieties of native birds were seen or heard right in urban Orinda.

LOCALE WAS in the wooded sector next to the Orinda Post Office, adjacent to heavily traveled Camino Pablo. (A civic group concerned with the future development of this land is headed by Mrs. Basil Winslow.)

The class, not dedicated bird watchers in the "cartoon" sense, is a fun group of Orinda housewives who meet once a week in order to learn to recognize birds by sight and by song.

At the same time they become acquainted with the native growth of their area. The group usually travels to various canyon and hilly regions in the center part of the county.

MONDAY MORNING, Mrs. Bedayn told her class that many of the bird varieties seen on field trips are present in Orinda—if looked for.

"When visiting the Orinda post office," she suggested, "glance over to the adjacent plot of natural parkland. You may see the strikingly marked Nuthatch creeping down the trunk of one of the ancient oaks there.

"Look for scolding Titmice and listen for the Meadowlark's song. In trips to the village supermarkets, take time to notice the violet-green Swallows swooping about and instead tearing down Tappan Road, pause for a second and you are sure to see the exotic electric blue of the Lauxuli bunting."

FAL Mermen Top NorCal

Despite the fact Alameda edged Las Lomas in the unofficial team standing, 53½-52, Foothill Athletic League swimmers dominated the North Coast Division I swim meet conducted at Las Lomas Saturday.

FAL mermen had an aggregate score of 109. The collective efforts of Alameda County Athletic League representatives could only muster 94½. Diablo Valley Athletic League totaled 68, and the Hayward Athletic League had a scant 11½.

Alameda was the winner in the varsity competition with 53½. Las Lomas was runner-up with 52. Third was Miramonte with 35, just ahead of fourth place Pleasant Hill with 34.

LAS LOMAS won the B class, racking up 39 points. Miramonte had 29, San Ramon 28, and Acalan 23½ to round out the top four places.

The FAL superiority was even more pronounced in the B division as FAL entries amassed 142 points, as opposed to 132 points by the rest of the field.

The meet, which was run off in an extremely efficient manner, was highlighted by a number of outstanding individual performances, particularly on the part of local entrants. Four new records were set in the varsity competition, and two in the B section.

Again, Contra Costa dominance asserted itself in a very convincing manner. Of the new records, three were set by members of the FAL. The DVAL-CCD accounted for two, and the ACAL had one.

Bob Strand of Las Lomas, who was the only double winner of A section, set a new mark of 58.0 in the 100-yard backstroke. Strand also triumphed in the 200-yard individual medley.

In the 100-yd. breaststroke, Duke Gibbs of Miramonte splashed to a win in the record time of 1:06.4.

DANE JUAREZ, Bob Fabian, Pete Hall and Steve Jordan, comprising the Pleasant Hill 200-yd. freestyle relay set a new time of 1:34.4 in that event.

The other mark in the A group, was the 1:46 recorded by the Alameda team in the 200-yd. medley relay.

In the B's, Tom McPherson set a new record in the 100-yd. breaststroke of 1:07.5. College Park's Cal Percy lowered the standard in the 200-yd. individual medley to 1:02.0.

OTHER WINNERS from Las Lomas in the A section were Don Smith in the 50-yd. freestyle, and Al Pomeroy in diving.

Bob Fabian of Pleasant Hill was the winner in the 100-yd. freestyle, while his Ram teammate copped the 200-yd. freestyle.

In the B's Bob Moore of Miramonte was the winner in the 200-yd. freestyle and the 50-yd. butterfly.

GARY LEACH of Las Lomas was another double winner in the B's, winning the 50-yd. and 100-yd. freestyle events.

The top six finishers in each event will now head to the North Coast championships to be held tomorrow at Santa Rosa.

The prospects for the Contra Costa representatives appear considerably dimmer for tomorrow as opposed to last week's competition.

THE BALANCE of power appears to be firmly entrenched in the Santa Clara-Peninsula areas. These regions appear to be the spawning areas for the Olympic teams.

It is anticipated that several of the local swimmers may place high in the standings, but a victory by any of the local contingent would definitely be of an upset nature.

Varsity 200-yd medley relay—Alameda 1:46 (new record).

200-yd freestyle—Pete Hall (PH) 2:01.6.

FAL Golf Title to Winner Of Mats-SR Links Battle

Miramonte and San Ramon golf teams both posted easy victories during the past week, as both squads prepared for Monday's title clash at Diablo Country Club.

Miramonte will host Del Valle this afternoon, but is expected to have too much for the Trojans.

Thus, going into Monday's links battle, both teams will boast an 8-1 season record.

MIRAMONTE was edged earlier in the season by Las Lomas, a defeat they later avenged, 9-0. San Ramon's only loss was to Miramonte, 5½-3½. However, in this meeting the Wolfpack will have the advantage of the home course. Local knowledge is always a big factor in golf.

Both teams are expected to be at full strength for this crucial contest.

Miramonte defeated Acalan 7-2. Don Parce and John Poole of the Mats shared medalist honors with 37s.

THIRD PLACE Las Lomas brought its league record to 6-3, as it defeated Piedmont 6-3. San Ramon swept past Del Valle, 9-0, in their meeting on the Diablo course.

Miramonte 7, Acalan 2
John Poole and Don Parce of Miramonte won medalist honors with 37. Woff (A) def. Robinson, 1 up; Parces (M) def. Shank, 3-2; Miramonte won best ball; Poole (M) def. Cartmill, 4-3; Rustad (M) def. Good Fishing Reports--Sportsmen Range Work

By GEORGE R. WHITE

OSCAR FROM LONG'S BAIT SHOP in San Pablo says Striped are slow and your best bet is up around Rio Vista. . . salmon are up and down with an average of about one per rod. . . Black Bass at Berryessa are hittin' good on the yellow Hell Bender and yellow Sonic. . . Clear Lake is fair for bass with the 'cats good, and the crappies fair. . . Conn Dam (Lake Hennessy) crappies knocking h--- out of the Flea Fly. If the weather holds fishing should be good all around.

WHITE'S FISHING REPORT has about the same report, but says that 2 good sturgeon were lost because the fisherman set his drag too hard. Plenty of fishermen lost fish up there this past two weeks because they didn't play the fish just right. 'Nother thing Dal Hering says nobody is up there trying to fish, thus no one knows whether fish are biting, says things a bit slow now, but if the weather holds, it should be good.

CLAUDE DAVIS (the Clear Lake and crappie king fisherman) got his share of fish this past weekend again on Weber's 'Li'l Swedee.' He went to Putah Creek bridge, past Middle town, down stream and got a good scrapin' 2 lb. smallmouth. His buddy Bud Skelley up in the Highlands got 5 nice smallmouth on the same kind 'o lure. The crappies Claude says, are hittin' small minnows and the Crappie Killer. On the way home Claude got himself 'nother bass and a 13½ inch rainbow. The small streams going into Cache Creek, well the bass are in there spawning at the moment.

AFTER SOME weeks of inactivity from the Diablo R. & G. club, and an installation of new officers, word has come that quite a bit of work has been done on the United Sportsmen's range out there on Arnold Indus. Hwy. just north of Willow Pass Rd. Several things the club secretary said to mention was that it will be very profitable for all who are interested in using the range, to drop out and see what they have cooked up for the public in the way of some kind of special cards or books of tickets. . . also guests are welcome to the club meetings on the first Thursday of each month, the meetings are held at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen clubhouse, 2800 N. Main in Walnut Creek. . . last, but not least is that they are going all guns on a Jr. club, which will give those joining, the benefit of a possible Jr. Rifle team, learn more about hunting and fishing, also some fishing trips are on the agenda.

Christ the King Wins 2 in DCL

In last week's baseball action in the Diablo Catholic League, Christ the King of Pleasant Hill defeated St. Mary's of Walnut Creek twice in three games.

Christ the King's fifth graders romped, 8-4, and the sixth grade team won a tight one, 2-1. St. Mary's salvaged the seventh grade game, 6-2.

All fourth grade games were rained out. The St. Mary's win in the seventh grade enabled St. Perpetua, idle last week, to move into a first-place tie with Christ the King.

Hawaii to Alamo On a Golf Swing

By HEC HANCOCK

Warren Downey, golf pro at the Round Hill Country Club, was warming up on the practice tee when I found him.

Using a three iron, he was hitting a bag of practice balls to a caddy stationed approximately 200 yards down the middle of the fairway.

Each shot was much the same as the other. Straight and true to the waiting caddy. Seldom did the boy have to take more than a step or two to retrieve the ball.

Watching Downey hit the ball right on the rivets time after time, was impressive; but somehow I couldn't relate his shots with those of the multitude of hackers I know.

This is the first in a weekly series of feature articles on Central Contra Costa County golf personalities. Hec Hancock's stories will contain tips on how to improve your golf game from the men who should know.

TO WATCH an artist at work is a privilege. But all week-end golfers have seen the same image of perfection via TV or personal appearances.

Golf would be a simple thing indeed, if we had merely to watch and then be able to copy the gifted swingers.

I asked him, what is there about the shots with the long and mid-irons that cause the average golfer the most problems?

Downey, who obviously has given some little time to the subject, was quick to answer. "The average golfer fails to hit through the ball, switching his weight from his right to left foot."

HE WENT ON to demonstrate as he was explaining. "The average golfer has a tendency to slice. Consequently, he tends to feel that hitting inside out will increase the possibility of the ball going to the right. Therefore, he often keeps the weight on his right foot and chops at the ball."

THIS IS HOW IT'S DONE—Round Hill CC golf pro, Warren Downey checks Walt Prokepe, noted Bay area photographer, on his grip.

"To get the maximum results from an iron shot, the golfer should hit through the ball, shifting his weight to the left foot, and finishing with his hands high."

The trail that led Warren Downey to his present position of golf professional at the Round Hill Country Club had its origins many years ago, and 3000 miles away.

Downey, who was born and raised in the Hawaiian Islands, was first exposed to golf as a caddy at the tender age of 10, on the Ala Wai municipal golf course in Honolulu.

HE SOON came under the watchful eye of the golf pro, Ted Benedict, and by the time he had reached 13, was the Hawaiian junior champion.

Before leaving the Islands, he had added numerous titles to his collection, including the Hawaiian Public Links championship, and the Francis Brown Two Ball Tournament.

Downey landed stateside in 1954, just in time to qualify for the U.S. National Open held that year at the Olympic Club's Lakeside course in San Francisco.

FOLLOWING the Open, Downey hit the pro circuit for a period of 13 months. However, without the cushion of a sponsor, he found the financial going pretty rough and decided to turn to the role of teaching pro.

His first job came with Tommy Lorrest, pro at the Haggin Oaks course in Sacramento.

After nearly five years at Mare Island, Downey was selected for the Round Hill job nearly two years ago.

Devils Cop Crown

Mt. Diablo was crowned champions of the DVAL-CCD, as College Park's late season title drive was cut short by Antioch Tuesday.

The Red Devils downed Clayton Valley, while Antioch assumed the role of spoiler to outlast the Falcons, 4-3, in a 13 inning thriller.

Antioch, who had last week been eliminated from title consideration, thus climbed back into a tie with College Park for the second place spot.

TERRY HENSON went the entire distance as the Falcons fought to keep their title hopes alive. Back to back singles in the 13th by the Panthers accounted for the winning run.

Even then, the relay from Dick Larscheid to catcher Bobby Roberts was in time, but the bone jarring collision at the plate knocked the ball from Roberts' grasp.

Elroy McLaughlin was the winning pitcher for Antioch. Prior to Tuesday's crucial contest, the Falcons had maintained their title aspirations with a 5-0 defeat of Pacifica.

Pleasant Hill	4	7	6
Ygnacio Valley	0	10	1	9½

*DVAL - CCD 1963 Baseball champion (Doesn't include games played yesterday).

JERRY COOK struck out 13 and scattered three hits as he shut out the Spartans.

Rich Wainwright, unloaded in the fourth inning with a three run homer for the big blow of the game.

The Falcons lost some close games during the year, particularly in the early season play. These were tight games that could have easily gone either way.

A few lucky bounces, and College Park could have gone all the way.

HOWEVER, the Falcons served notice that they will be one of the solid contenders for the CCD championship next year.

Only Mickey Thomas, Jerry Pollard, and Bobby Roberts will be missing from this year's squad. With Terry Henson and Jerry Cook both returning, the Falcons figure to have as strong a pitching department as will be found in the league.

Pleasant Hill coasted to a 4-1 victory over winless Ygnacio Valley last Thursday.

However, the Rams then encountered difficulty against Pittsburg, as they fell to the Buccaneers, 6-2.

THE RAMS got on the scoreboard with two markers in the first inning. Mark Perrin smashed a ball to the third base man, who in turn bobbled the ball, enabling Dave Clark to score.

Pete Caruso then belted a single to close out the scoring for the Rams.

Steve Dawkins started on the mound for the Rams, and was charged with the defeat.

Pacifica shut out Ygnacio Valley, 5-0, narrowly missing a no-hitter in the process.

Korpi, hurling for the Spartans, limited the Warriors to a single safety.

Pacifica tallied two runs in the first and three in the third inning to coast home.

PHSC Is Second at Los Gatos

Trailing only powerful Santa Clara, the Pleasant Hill Swim Club finished second in the second annual West Valley invitational meet last weekend at Los Gatos.

Bernie Stenson paced the Pleasant Hill swimmers, being awarded the individual high-point trophy for his performance in the boys 9-10 age group.

Stenson won the 50-yd. freestyle and 50 yd. butterfly. His time of 32.5 set a new meet record in the butterfly event.

He was in the 50-yd. backstroke.

Harry Diaz in the 11-12 year old boys was also impressive. He won the 100-yd. freestyle in the new record time of 57.6. In the 100-yd. butterfly, he tied the meet and P.A. record of 1:02.0. He was second in the 100-yd. breaststroke.

Camille Juarez was outstanding among the local distaff entries. She won the 100-yd. breaststroke, and was second in the 100-yd. freestyle, butterfly, and backstroke, the girls 11-12 group.

The boys 11-12 200-yd. freestyle relay team of Harry Diaz, Jim Southward, Mike Hardy, and Bernie Stenson brought the blue ribbon home in that event.

Winning Combination

HERE'S THE WORD—Boy Paul Louis tells dad, Coach Duane Louis of Las Lomas, there's a hit in that bat. Las Lomas clinched at least a tie in FAL play this week, and are undefeated thus far this season. Young Paul isn't telling any secret, but dad must be glad he's around.

Dons Title Hopes, Shot In 1-0 Loss to Alhambra

Las Lomas, with a first place tie in the Foothill Athletic League assured, will be seeking to wrap up sole possession of the championship next week.

In fact, if the Knights won in their outing with San Ramon yesterday, they will already have won the championship. Results of yesterday's games were not known at press time.

In addition to the title, Las Lomas will be shooting for an unprecedented undefeated season in its remaining games.

ON TUESDAY, Las Lomas will travel to Martinez to tangle with resurgent Alhambra Bulldogs. They will then close the season on Thursday with a meeting at Walnut Creek with Miramonte.

Acalanes will be idle Tuesday with a bye. The Dons will then face Alhambra at home in a game that now figures to decide the runnerup spot.

Del Valle will close out its season Tuesday when they entertain the win-happy Piedmont Scots.

Miramonte and San Ramon will try to salvage what's left of the season when they meet Tuesday. The Wolfpack then will seek to reverse the upset they suffered at the hands of Piedmont in their last meeting.

ALL OF THE games to be played next Thursday are contests originally set for April 16 and moved to this date due to inclement weather.

Las Lomas didn't waste any time taking the upper hand in its game with Miramonte Tuesday. The Knights jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Bob Kreider pumped a homer into the Mat swimming pool with the bases empty.

After picking up a pair of runs in the fourth frame, the Knights unloaded with seven hits, which, coupled with four walks, accounted for a 10-run inning.

Kreider with a pair of singles and Gary Ford with a double and a single each had two hits in the frame.

THE WIN went to Kreider, who started on the mound and worked four innings before Roy Ward came on in relief.

Acalanes rallied in the sixth to squeeze out a 3-2 verdict over Del Valle 5, Alhambra 2.

Aquabears Capture Third Place in Los Gatos Meet

The Aquabears, local AAU Age Group Swim Team, placed third in the Second Annual Invitational West Valley Swim Club meet last weekend at Los Gatos.

In capturing the show spot in the weekend competition, the Aquabears trailed only the strong Santa Clara contingent and neighboring Pleasant Hill Swim Club.

Officials of the Aquabears pointed out that their team was handicapped in last weekend's meet because they suddenly "lost their home" 10 days earlier.

The Aquabears were forced to move from Sleepy Hollow pool, Orinda, when directors of the pool decided they could no longer accommodate them.

The team has been working out at the Miramonte High School pool during evening hours with the cooperation of school officials.

Since the Aquabears were formed three years ago, the team has trained at the Sleepy Hollow pool during off-hours.

Outstanding swimmer of the team was Cindy Stewart, 10-year-old Orinda youngster, who set a new AAU national age group record in the 50-yard backstroke. Her time was 33.7 seconds. She also placed first in the 50-yard freestyle.

Five other young Orinda swimmers also won gold medals.

Sandy Olson, 7, tied for first in the 50-yard freestyle, and Steve Patching, 10, took a first place in the 50-yard backstroke. The boys' 9-10-year-old 200-yard freestyle relay team won their event, with Steve Patching swimming the anchor leg. Stan Johnson, David Olson and John Svendsen, from Oakland, completed the foursome.

Second place finishers were Heidi Ross, 14, from Walnut Creek in the senior women's 200-yard butterfly, and Sean Farrell, 15, in the senior men's 200-yard freestyle.

Third place bronze medal winners include Farrell, who won the 15-17-year-old 100-yard freestyle; Sandy York, 13, of Orinda in the senior women's 200-yard butterfly; Marilee Rocca, 16, of Lafayette in the senior women's 200-yard backstroke, and Margaret Trauerum, 12, of Alamo placed third in the 11-12-year-old girls' 100-yard backstroke.

The Aquabears are now pointing for the Junior Olympic trials which will again be held in Pleasant Hill on the weekend of May 25 and 26. This year only 12 swimmers in Northern California will qualify to swim in the Junior Olympics, which will be held at the Arden Hills Swim Club, Sacramento, California, June 8 and 9.

Over 20 AAU swim teams will participate in the qualifying meet.

Over 20 AAU swim teams will participate in the qualifying meet.

Gaels to Name Stars of Century At Homecoming

Centennial Gale All-Stars of football, basketball and rugby of the past century will be named during the Saint Mary's College Homecoming June 2.

Tom Foudy, Gael sports publicist, during one of the Moragans' most colorful football periods, 1936-40, is heading a selection committee of sportswriters, broadcasters and those connected with Saint Mary's athletic teams over the years, including Brother U. Albert, F.S.C., president of the college from 1935-1941.

Alumni members of the committee are James M. Smith, president of Eaton and Smith, San Francisco; John F. Henning, undersecretary of Labor and former alumni director of the college; Bill McManus, San Francisco Monitor, and three other former Gael publicists, Bill Bettencourt, public relations director of Friden Corp.; Will Stevens, San Francisco Examiner, and Robert J. McAndrews, vice president, California Savings and Loan League.

Jr Olympic Swim Meet to Be Held At PH May 25-26

The Pleasant Hill Swim Club will host the Junior Olympic Sectional Qualifying Meet (short course) at the Recreational District Pool May 25 and 26.

The meet will be one of four sectional meets serving as qualifying trials for the finals to be conducted at Sacramento in June. Qualifiers will consist of the 12 best individual and 10 top relay teams.

Any registered amateur athlete is eligible for competition if he belongs to the Pacific Association. There will be 88 events offering a variety of strokes and distances.

The meets will be open to the public. No admission will be charged. Events will start at 9 a.m. each day.

Local Preps Crack Marks

Perennial track power, Pittsburg, won the team title in the Diablo Valley Athletic League Foothill Athletic League track crash Tuesday afternoon on the Acalanes oval.

Pittsburg tallied 43 points to capture first place. Trailing the Pirates were Livermore with 33, Clayton Valley 27, Piedmont 26, Del Valle 22, Las Lomas and Miramonte 21, San Ramon 13, Acalanes 11, College Park and Pleasant Hill 8.

The Buccaneers also won the B category, racking up 67 points. Following behind were Clayton Valley 45, Piedmont 33, Pleasant Hill 17, Ygnacio Valley 15, Central J. High 14, San Ramon 10 and Diablo Valley 8.

DESPITE the dominance of the DVAL entries on a team basis, the FAL representatives acquitted themselves in fine fashion individually.

Actually, the FAL captured more first places, seven to six, than the DVAL.

In doing so, local athletes posted some excellent efforts, but found they couldn't approach the older league in depth in most events.

In varsity competition, four new records were set. Additionally, two more meet marks were tied. Of the new standards, three were contributed by FAL entries and one by DVAL. Each league tied one of the existing records.

BILL O'TOOLE, after losing by a step to Ray Armstrong of Livermore in the 100-yard dash, blazed to a record 21.7 in the 220.

Bill Staley of Las Lomas, one of the two double winners in the meet, spun the discus 171-4 to break the old mark by nearly 20 feet. Earlier, Staley won the shotput with a 55-8 effort.

A quartet of flying Scots from Piedmont fought off a desperate stretch drive by Livermore to win the 880 relay in the record time of 1:29.8.

The pole vault record was shattered by Brian Hunt of College Park, who soared to a new mark of 13 feet.

STEVE LAWYER tied the existing mark in the quarter mile with aa clocking of 49.6.

One of the surprises of the meet was registered when Albert Lea of Pitt achieved his double win by defeating Greg Ford of Clayton Valley in the 180 low hurdles. Lea also won the broad jump.

In the 880, Dave Anderson of San Ramon demonstrated that his win of two weeks ago over Miramonte's Rich Kay wasn't a fluke, as he won by a step in the fast time of 1:37.0.

IN THE B's, the record book was almost entirely rewritten as eight new records went into the books, and one tied.

In setting a record of 13.7 in winning the 120 low hurdles, Emil Quinto of Ygnacio Valley also provided his school with its first blue ribbons.

The first five finishers in Tuesday's meet will travel to Mt. Eden this afternoon to participate in the North Coast Division I meet on the Mt. Eden cinders.

SAFEWAY SALUTES

Calif. is the Leader In Production of Fruits & Vegetables...Safeway's a Leader In Distribution!

We, at Safeway, have set aside this week for a special salute to the farmers, ranchers, and to everyone who is a part of California agriculture. It is highly appropriate for us to express our good will to this number one business of our now number one state. (Did you know that Agriculture is California's biggest industry?) California agriculture produces the kind of merchandise that it is our business to sell. California is our best source of dependable quality foods of many kinds. It leads the entire nation in total farm production and farm income. Here, for example, is grown 43 percent of the country's vegetables and 42 percent of its fruit and nut crops. Many hands are needed to move these products to consumers throughout the land. Safeway is happy to be among those who provide California agriculture with efficient distribution of its products, not only in this state, but in many other states too. You are welcome to join us as we tip our hats to California agriculture, to our "partners" in the food business.

Garden CHECK-LIST

PREPARED BY THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF NURSERYMEN

Deep watering is essential for most garden plants. Certain shallow-rooted shrubs such as camellias and azaleas should not be soaked. Water more frequently, less deeply.

2. Spray gladiolus plants as they grow to ward off possible infestation of thrips.

3. Plant tuberous begonia seedlings this month. Transplant sprouted begonia tubers to pots and/or the garden when they have some three inches of top growth. Remember the blooms face the same direction as leaves point.

4. Plant fuchsias this month. Pinch out the new growth to make plants bushy.

5. Feed your lawn once a month and it will be like the one "down the street" that you envy.

Teen Girls Eat Right?

In recent studies on the eating habits of teen-agers throughout the country, it has been found that teenage boys generally eat better than teen-age girls.

This means that more of the boys are getting the quantities of minerals, vitamins, calories and protein that are considered essential for their good health and well-being. Boys have good appetites and eat enough food so that they are likely to include foods high in the nutrients they need.

If the girls are too concerned about their weight, they may be leaving out food which is essential to their attractive appearance and happy disposition.

If you have teen-agers in your family, send for a copy of Food Needs of Teen-agers, by writing to Home Advisor, P.O. Box 390, Pittsburgh.

Gerberas Need Good Drainage

Gerberas are very susceptible to damage from poor drainage. This more than anything else accounts for their occasionally short span of life.

Unless you plant them in a slightly raised bed or one in which you know the drainage to be good, chances are some of your prized plants will be lost during wet winters.

Another trick is to set plants in the ground so that the crown is slightly higher than it was in the nursery can. Whatever you do, don't bury the crown.

As with other African natives, gerberas like a warm, sunny spot. Any reasonably rich soil and regular watering, preferably by irrigation—are also to their liking. As the clumps increase in size through the years, this serves to give you extra plants, but other than that you needn't lift and divide for several years after planting. When you do, plan to do it in the fall.

Letters to The Editor

POISON PREVENTION

Editor:

Thank you for sending us a copy of the advertisement section Week in your issue of March 15. We are particularly interested because this division includes the National Clearinghouse for Poison Control Centers.

Please extend our appreciation to the two public-spirited pharmacies—Kamian's Prescription Pharmacy and Lafayette Pharmacy—for submerging their natural spirit of competition on this occasion to bring the citizens of your community the important message contained in their advertisement.

I am sure I am reflecting not only the hope of the U.S. Public Health Service, but also that of your hardworking State Board of Health and local health officials, that parents will heed the sound advice in the pharmacies' message. This could go a long way towards insuring that children will not be included in this year's statistics of accidental poisoning.

MEL WHITE, Chief Information Services Div. of Accident Prevention Department of Health, Education and Welfare Washington, D.C.

Blue Lily of Nile Is a Star Bulb Performer

Agapanthus, the Blue Lily of the Nile, is a terrific performer. Its umbels of blue flowers catching the early summer sun and brightening gardens. Actually a bulb, agapanthus is treated here like a perennial and left in the ground for years until the clumps become too crowded for good performance.

When this happens, the clumps are simply lifted, divided and replanted.

The agapanthus is easily spotted. From a clump of evergreen strap-like leaves, tall flower stems shoot up, bearing at the top a large rounded cluster of bright blue flowers. You find an occasional white-flowered variety but only rarely.

These flowers, when faded, will drop off, leaving the framework on which they grew to dry and harden off—after which many gardeners make use of them in dried arrangements.

Calla Lilies Are in Bloom Again--Stains!

Calla Lily stains are stubborn whether on a tablecloth or a dress. These stains are brownish in color, are almost impossible to remove, especially if they go through the laundry.

The soap and heat set them, so treatment should be done as soon as possible before washing.

Bleach with sodium perborate solution. (Sodium perborate is obtainable at any grocery store. Read the label on the package of bleach.)

Test color first on an inside seam of the garment. Use 1 tablespoon bleach to 1 pint water. Temperature should be as high as is safe for the fabric and color.

Sodium perborate bleach may be safely used on nylon.

The National Easter Seal Society, with 1400 affiliates throughout the nation, is the oldest and largest voluntary agency serving the physically handicapped. Contributions to the annual Easter Seal Campaign, now under way, finance its work.

Royal Rhododendrons

Sun Home and Garden

It's a rare privilege to be able to grow rhododendrons well, and that is precisely what we can do in northern California.

They are traditionally at their best along the coast, but an increasing number of valley gardeners have discovered in recent years that some varieties will give a gorgeous display inland, also.

Like camellias and azaleas, rhododendrons prefer an acid soil with plenty of leaf mold or peat, part shade—the amount increasing as you move away from the coast—and ample water on their leaves and at their roots.

THEY ARE lovely when planted beneath our native live oaks and many an older specimen can be seen in northern California climbing right up and into the oak's foliage so that the spring bloom appears to be that of the oak at first glance.

The shade requirements vary according to the mean temperature in your particular corner of the state, but the California

Association of Nurserymen warns against giving too much shade—specifically low, dense shade.

Few shrubs will thrive without enough light and rhododendrons are no exception. They will bloom and make sturdier shrubs when grown in high shade or filtered sunlight, as one might expect from the branches of tall trees.

They normally do well out in the open on the north or east side of a house, but avoid south and west walls which are shaded.

A SEEMINGLY endless number of rhododendron varieties are available to gardeners who seek them out, and the time to seek them is now.

Starting in April and extending into June shoppers will find the different rhododendrons in bloom at C.A.N. nurseries. There is one variety, the beautiful red Cornubia, which blooms in February, but most of the others are just starting.

Pink Pearl, Purple Splendor, Lord Roberts, Fragrantissimus,

Blue Diamond, Alice, Fabia are all names of popular varieties, but that's just a start. The way to shop for them is not by name, but by sight. And there's one minor trouble with that, too, for you'll probably want all the rhododendrons you see.

Grass Stains Can Come Out

Grass stains are common. Here's the method of treatment: Rub liquid detergent into the stain, let stand a few minutes, then wash.

Or if not harmful to fabric (test on inside seam first), sponge stain lightly with alcohol. If stain remains, apply glycerine, manipulate and thoroughly rinse.

Very stubborn stains may require sprinkling powdered sodium perborate on stain and dipping in hot or boiling water. Rinse well and repeat if necessary.

AZALEAS, LILIES, mums and such like are only the beginning of the gift selections awaiting you at your nursery. Pick something lovely that is already blooming brightly in a pot—wrap it gaily with foil and ribbon—and present it proudly for any occasion. C.A.N. nurserymen have special gift certificates, too!

JUDITH NELSON LYNN LOVELAND DOROTHY GAY MARTIN JUDITH MARIE MYER LUCIA KITTLE BATES

Women in The Sun

'All Aboard for Carmel!'

Showers, Sunshine in Store for Quintet

With June just around the corner, engagements are more and more in the romantic spotlight.

Following are five betrothals announced recently:

MYER-MIRANDA

Arizona State College, from which they both graduated last June, was the meeting place for Judith Marie Myer and F. Fausto Miranda.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Myer, 7 Don Gabriel Way, Orinda, recently announced, at an afternoon party, the young couple's engagement. Wedding date is set for June 29 at Santa Maria Catholic Church, Orinda.

Judy, as her friends call the bride-elect, is now teaching fifth grade at Mountain Vista Elementary School in Phoenix. She is a graduate of Acalanes High School. While on the Arizona campus she was president of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Her older brother is Richard T. Myer Jr., a senior at the University of California, Berkeley. Her younger brother Paul is a junior at Miramonte High School.

The benedict-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco N. Miranda of Douglas, Arizona.

He is an engineer for Good-year Aircraft Corporation in Phoenix. While in college, he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

NELSON-ROSSI

Announced recently at a family dinner was the engagement of Judith Nelson to Gerald Frank Rossi, son of the Frank E. Rossis of Lafayette.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nelson of Walnut Creek. An August wedding is planned. The couple will make their home in Reno, Nevada, while Jerry, as he is known, completes his senior year at the University of Nevada.

He is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Judith attended Diablo Valley College and Heald's Business College. While attending Acalanes High School, where the couple met, she belonged to Daphne, Children's Hospital Society.

The prospective bridegroom has a sister, Lee, attending San Francisco State College.

Judith is the sister of Janice who attends Del Valle High School in Walnut Creek.

LOVELAND-MARLOW

The engagement of Lynn Loveland, Orinda, to Herb Marlow, Oakland, was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Loveland, 32 Camino del Diablo, Orinda.

The engagement was revealed at a family gathering celebrating Lynn's birthday.

Lynn, a 1961 graduate of Miramonte High School, is a language major at the University of California, Davis campus.

Herb's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dimms of Columbus, Nebraska.

The benedict-elect is employed in Oakland where he has made his home since his return from service.

MARTIN-YABROFF

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, Kentucky, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Gay Martin, to Ronald M. Yabroff. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Yabroff of Lafayette.

Dorothy attended the University of Kentucky two years and will be graduated in June from Cornell University.

She is a member of Chi-Omega sorority.

Ronald is a graduate of the University of Colorado. He is now studying for an advanced degree in chemical engineering at Cornell University.

An early fall wedding is planned.

BATES-SORRICK

Announced recently in Seattle and again Friday in the Bay Area was the forthcoming wedding of Clay Hanlin Sorrick, Jr., of Orinda and Lucia Kittle Bates of Seattle.

The ceremony will take place in Seattle in late August.

Following a honeymoon, Clay will take his bride back to the Colorado College campus at Colorado Springs where they are both students, to complete his senior year.

He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and his bride-elect is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Russell Bates of Seattle. She has two brothers and a sister.

Clay was prepped at Cate School, has three brothers, Steven, who attends Cornell University in New York; Alan, a student at Miramonte High School and who will attend the University of Arizona next year, and 10-year-old Brian.

A capsule vacation on the Monterey Peninsula will await Contra Costans boarding chartered buses Tuesday at Capwell's, Walnut Creek, for the fifth annual Carmel House Tour and champagne lunch sponsored by Fir Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

The daylong outing will start at 8:45 a.m., the appointed hour when other tour buses will be departing simultaneously from Piedmont and Hayward. All will return to their starting points at 6 p.m. Palo Corona Ranch, the home of Stuyvesant Fish, will be the first stop on the tour for many of the guests. Commanding vistas of the entrance to the Carmel Valley and the Pacific Ocean, this country seat of the last male descendant of Peter Stuyvesant boasts a large collection of Spanish antiques. It is also the site of Mr. Fish's Imperial Boar Company, and the more adventuresome may inspect the herd of wild boar and sample wild boar ham.

Virginia Stanton, party editor of House Beautiful and tour hostess, will open her own distinctive home which was designed by her husband, Robert Stanton, well-known architect. Situated on a narrow ridge jutting into the Carmel Valley, the home's massive walls of native stone and eye-filling walls of glass are in complete harmony with their surroundings. Tour regulars will have a first opportunity to inspect the hexagonal kitchen which in previous years has been bustling with caterers serving luncheons to 300 people.

Champagne lunch will be served this year around the pool of the R. E. McDonald residence in the green acres of Carmel Valley which were once Muriel Vanderbilt's horse breeding farm. The stable with its jockey weathervane, long a landmark for Carmel Valley habitues, has been preserved and incorporated into the design of the sweeping mansion. Featured in House Beautiful and American Home magazines, this blending of old and new is the work of San Francisco architect Gardner Dailey. It has been decorated by Mrs. McDonald herself. Equally renowned is the pool pavilion by Jon Konigshofer who also designed the terrazzo master bath.

Lawrence Pollard, mayor of Monterey, will be on hand to help serve champagne with Fir Branch husbands, Ed Gehring and Boyd Gainer.

Mrs. Boyd Gainer is chairman of the tour. Tickets, at $13.50 which include everything on the one-day holiday and buy medical care for needy children as well, may be secured by writing or calling Mrs. W. D. Gieseke, 3279 Knowland Avenue, Oakland 19, 532-4990.

Three Debs from East of the Tunnel

The girls from east of the tunnel will be among the 1963 debutantes to bow at the winter ball, December 23.

They are Clarinda Telfer and Caren Colvin Haukeren, both of Orinda, and Sandra Lund of Lafayette.

The trio will be among the 22 debutantes to attend a tea May 25 in Piedmont. The debs and their mothers will attend the tea at the home of Mrs. Albert Rowe, Jr.

The other guests will include members of Hill Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay. The branch sponsors the Winter Ball at the Claremont Hotel for the benefit of the hospital.

Clarinda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Telfer, 2 Oak Arbor Road, Orinda. She is a student at Miramonte High School.

Sandra is the daughter of Mrs. Lyle Lund, 781 Old Jonas Hill Road, Lafayette. She is a student at Acalanes High School.

Caren is the daughter of Mrs. George Haukeren, 15 Vida Descansada, Orinda. She attends Miramonte High School.

The 1963 Winter Ball committee is:

Chairman, Mrs. Willard Wilde; assistant chairman, Mrs. Edward Steffanides, secretary, Mrs. Albert Rowe Jr.; treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Meek; decorations, Mrs. E. A. Howard Jr.

Publicity, Mrs. Frederick Henderson; invitations, Mrs. W. B. Bates; presentations, Mrs. William Hager; date book, Mrs. Vernon Child.

Sponsors, Mrs. Edward Eng; seating chairman, Mrs. Carl King; ushers, Mrs. John Hanson; floor committee, G. Edmund Smith.

A FUN NOTE in fund raising was the recent luncheon, event of the Women's Division of the Jewish Welfare Federation, enjoyed by Contra Costans (left) Mrs. Sydney Ross, Lafayette, and (right) Mrs. Irving Schwartz, Walnut Creek, with Mrs. A. Gordon of Oakland. It was at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley.

Fashion Flight Given at Diablo

"Flight Into Fashion" was the theme for Diablo Valley College's Associated Women Students' annual spring fashion show Friday at 4 p.m. and again at 8 p.m. in the Diablo Room of the Student Activities Building.

According to Mrs. Wanda Mooney, Diablo Valley dental assisting instructor and coordinator of the show, highlight was a bridal party. Also included in the program was a showing of sports wear.

JEAN LOUISE MILLER and Walter Joe Weick plan to be married June 15 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda. Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Miller, 1151 Glen Road, Lafayette. She is presently attending the University of California at Riverside and majoring in education. She is a member of the Highland Lassies and the Associated Women Students. Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Weick of Whittier and is a senior at U.C. Riverside where he has held various offices on the campus.

Mills Club Meet

Members of the Orinda Mills Club met recently on the terrace of the Orinda Store's "Top of the Stairs" for lunch and their regular business meeting.

They finalized plans for the Mills College annual luncheon, which will be held at the Orinda Country Club, May 22 at 12:30 p.m.

All alumnae is invited to attend. Reservations may be made before May 20 with Mrs. Warren Dexter, 254-3485, or Mrs. John Goldeen, 376-5572. Mrs. Weyland Cunningham is in charge of invitations, and Mrs. Russell Gilwee of club arrangements.

Mrs. Samuel Boardman, president, will announce the nominations for next year's officers, and the election will be held at the conclusion of the luncheon.

Members of the local branch will also serve as unofficial hostesses for the reception at the home of president and Mrs. C. Easton Rothwell, June 8 on the Mills College campus during the annual college reunion for alumnae and their husbands.

Assisting will be Meses Stuart Henderson, Gordon Schmidt, Frank Gaines and Richard Copenhagen.

MR. AND MRS. JULIO LUIS ULIANA

Joan and Julio Say Wedding Vows

Father McLaughlin officiated at the marriage of Joan Marie Behlow and Julio Luis Uliana. The high noon service was at St. Mary's Church, Walnut Creek, recently.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles John Behlow, 44 Bishop Lane, Walnut Creek. She attended San Francisco College for Women.

The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Uliana of Oakland.

Joan's father gave her in marriage.

Maid of honor was Marcia Behlow, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Cynthia Uliana, sister of the groom.

The engagement of the young couple was told during the Christmas holidays.

Decor at the church included white gladiolus and chrysanthemum at the altar.

Tall standards at either side and in front of the altar had large white satin bows. These also adorned alternating pews. A white runner lined the center aisle.

Joan's gown had a bodice of imported Italian lace with hand-sewn pearls. The cummerbund was of criss-crossing ribbon. The taffeta skirt had a chapel train.

Her veil was of medium length. A butterfly style with four tiers, it was held by a crown of pearls.

The maid of honor wore a dress of delustered gold. It was a satin sheath with overskirt and matching shoes. A crown veil was held by pearls. Marcia's bouquet was of delicate iris with gold centers.

The bridesmaid's gown was similar with slanted bow in back.

Best man was Robert Madrid, Oakland certified public accountant. Usher was Emil Benassini, Concord nurseryman.

Reception was the University Club, Oakland. After a two-week honeymoon to Puerto Rico, the newlyweds returned to Oakland, where they are making their home.

Business Gals Install

The Lafayette Business and Professional Women's Club held its 13th annual installation Friday night at Mike Lynn's restaurant, Orinda.

Presiding was President Etta Theile with Bay Valley District President Harriet Stephenson as installing officer.

P.E.O. Bureau Of 'Canapes, Canvasses'

TRAVEL TIME

MR. AND MRS. A. H. DeGRASSI of Orinda are shown at the Santa Barbara Biltmore where they recently spent several days while on a combination business and pleasure trip.

DR. AND MRS. EDMOND J. BARRETT of Orinda, are photographed aboard American President Lines SS President Roosevelt on the vessel's recent trip from San Francisco to the Orient. Dr. Barrett is the president of the Barrett Transportation Company and co-chairman of the St. Mary's College fund raising drive.

MR. AND MRS. E. L. BARGONES find it very easy to combine business with pleasure at famous Camelback Inn, desert resort near Phoenix. Bargones attended a board meeting of the Pacific Westbound Conference recently. His wife whiled the hours away just sun-bazing or visiting the colorful shops in nearby Scottsdale.

Juvenile Hall Kids Entertained

Children from Edgar Cottage of Juvenile Hall have enjoyed the four productions of the 1962-63 season of the East Bay Children's Theater.

The tickets were donated by the members of the East Bay Children's Theater, and transportation was provided by the women of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

This was the first time many of these children had seen a live theater performance.

St. Theresa's Guild of St. Stephen's Church entertained the children at Fairyland recently. They are looking forward to having swimming parties for them this summer.

Run by businessmen...

who are bankers. Not bankers who try to behave like businessmen. This makes a big difference. In our loan department, for example. There's no fast shuffle what with calling in "experts," etc. You get a quick and deserving "yes" or in some cases a quick but constructive "no." You know where you stand and why. We like to think of ourselves as a bank with muscle. Hard-fisted and aggressive. Unimpressed by bigness for bigness sake.

Our services include all types of home loans...at competitive rates of interest.

Also:

Accounts: We stress the personal approach in all accounts with reference to you by name and not by any impersonal numbering system. Different? Certainly.

Checking: Sit-down lobby check stands. Privacy in teller lines. No service charge (if balance is $300 or over).

Savings: All interest computed on daily basis and paid quarterly. Maximum permitted by government regulations. Regular accounts—3½%. Special savings accounts—4%.

County School Trustees Split on Co.-Wide Tax

The county-wide tax feature of AB 888, a bill to provide approximately $100 million in additional state support of schools, prevented endorsement of the proposal by the Contra Costa County School Boards Association last week.

A motion to support the bill, proposed at the association's meeting May 8 in Orinda was amended to delete approval of the county-wide tax feature.

School board representatives then solved their problems by abandoning the original motion.

The county-wide tax would provide about $25 million in equalization aid by spreading that amount from present local tax revenues through "wealthy" and "impoverished" districts within each county.

SPEAKERS FROM Pittsburg and Antioch Unified school districts were principal opponents of the measure at the meeting, while representatives of Mt. Diablo Unified School District and others supported it.

The bill has been endorsed, in toto, by Martinez School District, Mt. Diablo, Orinda and Lafayette.

Last week the Walnut Creek School Board indicated it was not in favor of the legislation, primarily because of the county-wide tax proposal.

Following a year's analysis and study, the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council comprising Contra Costa County and Berkeley-Alameda in Alameda County, at a dinner meeting at Paul's of Martinez overwhelmingly voted to continue their operation as a separate Boy Scout Council carrying on the functions for which they were chartered.

A study committee for the council, headed by Justice A. F. Bray of Martinez, made a report considering several proposals to the board, which resulted in the decision.

It was pointed out that the Mt. Diablo Council has a membership which places it as one of the two largest councils in the Bay Area and 52nd place in America among 528 councils.

Circus Coming: Proceeds for 'Farm' Chapel

The James Brothers Circus will perform before the general public at Acalanes High School Field in Lafayette June 16 and 17.

Sponsored by the Sheriff's Men of Contra Costa County, the show features world-famous European acts, clowns, jugglers and animals of almost every kind, according to Sheriff Walter Young, president.

Proceeds will go toward construction of an all-faith chapel at the county rehabilitation center near Clayton.

"Construction of the chapel will give us a strong helping hand toward rehabilitation of men who show promise of becoming good citizens," Young said.

Speaker at the county group's meeting was Dr. L. E. Carbert, tax analyst, author and former professor of economics. Dr. Carbert gave a resume of current school finance.

TRIBUTE was paid to Dr. George Miner, who is retiring from the superintendency of Richmond Union High School District and Richmond City District, and eight board members who are retiring from office and who have served the county association in the following capacity:

Dr. Jack V. Shahbazian, San Ramon Valley Union High School District, director; Mrs. Thelma Fontana, Antioch Unified, secretary; Fred Abbott, Contra Costa Junior College, director; Harold Smith, Danville Union, treasurer.

George Jeffries, Sheldon, treasurer; M. M. Snodgrass, Richmond Board of Education, vice-president and director; Mrs. Doris Loveridge, Mt. Diablo Unified, director.

Philip Bush and Herbert Waterman, Orinda Union, salary committee and legislative committee, respectively; Francis Digardi, Vine Hill, director, and Mrs. Phyllis Wainwright, Martinez-Alhambra, president.

Two other past presidents were introduced, George Gordon, Contra Costa Junior College District board, and Boardman Moore, Lafayette School District.

Symphony to Play Easter Seal Benefit

The Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County is being given the opportunity to benefit through the sale of tickets for the concert to be presented by the Young People's Symphony Orchestra, May 24 at Berkeley Auditorium Theater.

Both general admission tickets costing $1.50 and student tickets for 50 cents are available at the Easter Seal office, 240 South Sixth Street, Richmond.

The Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County may retain a percentage on each ticket sold by the society, according to Mrs. Lentz.

Members of the Young People's Symphony include young musicians from west and central Contra Costa County as well as from Alameda County.

Included in the concert will be Saint-Saens' "The Carnival of the Animals" with Lewis Bennett narrating the poem by Ogden Nash.

The Berkeley Teen & Dance Workshop will also perform.

NATIONAL REALTOR WEEK, MAY 12-18

10 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD DEAL WITH A REALTOR

The REALTOR Code of Ethics

1—The Realtor should keep himself informed as to movements affecting real estate in his community, state, and the nation, so that he may be able to contribute to public thinking on matters of taxation, legislation, land use, city planning, and other questions affecting property interests.

2—It is the duty of the Realtor to be informed on current market conditions in order to be in a position to advise his clients as to the fair market price.

3—It is the duty of the Realtor to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation or unethical practices in the real estate field. He should endeavor to help stamp out or prevent arising in his community, any practices which could be damaging to the public or to the dignity and integrity of the real estate profession. If there be a board or commission in the state, charged with the duty of regulating the practices of brokers and salesmen, the Realtor should lend every help to such body, cooperate with it, and report violations of proper practice.

4—The Realtor should ascertain all pertinent facts concerning every property for which he accepts the agency, so that he may fulfill his obligation to avoid error, exaggeration, misrepresentation, or concealment of pertinent facts.

5—The Realtor should not be instrumental in introducing into a neighborhood a character of property or use which will clearly be detrimental to property values in that neighborhood.

6—The Realtor should not be a party to the naming of a false consideration in a deed, unless it be the naming of an obviously nominal consideration.

7—The Realtor should not engage in activities that constitute the practice of law and should recommend that title be examined and legal counsel be obtained when the interest of either party requires it.

8—The Realtor should keep in a special bank account, separated from his own funds, monies coming into his hands in trust for other persons, such as escrows, trust funds, client's monies and other like items.

9—The Realtor in his advertising should be especially careful to present a true picture and should not advertise without disclosing his name or his firm name, nor permit his salesmen to use individual names or telephone numbers, unless the salesmen's connection with the Realtor is obvious in the advertisement.

10—The Realtor, for the protection of all parties with whom he deals, should see that financial obligations and commitments regarding real estate transactions are in writing, expressing the exact agreement of the parties; and that copies of such agreements, at the time they are executed, are placed in the hands of all parties involved.

What is the most important fact you should know before buying or selling a home?

(Or any other real estate)

It is this:

Not every real estate firm can display this seal.

This seal tells you that the firm is headed by one or more Realtors®—men or women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and their local board... and who subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics.

When you sell, a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring... and able to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy, a Realtor is able to find property for you which suits your needs and pocketbook.

As Realtors, we are ready and willing to put our storehouse of real estate knowledge and information at your service. Call us anytime.

Western Tunnel Digging Halts Inside Caldecott

Excavation on the western main crown heading in Caldecott 3 ceased last week as contractors turned their attention to concreting the tunnel lining from the west.

Acting State Resident Engineer Robert McCullough explained that excavation will continue from the east—or Orinda—end of the project.

"They'll probably 'hole through' from that side," McCullough said. Western excavation would continue if contractors can catch up with concreting from the west but this is judged unlikely.

With the western excavation halted at 2015 feet, and the eastern end in somewhat over 148 feet (70 feet in the last week), some 1200 feet of tunnel mining remain.

In the meantime, contractors may place their first concrete arch section on the western end of the job this week, McCullough advised.

Still, he said, the coventuring firms remain behind their sched-

VA Hospital Seeks Nurses, Technologists

Officials at the Oakland Veterans Administration Hospital announced today that nurses and clinical laboratory technologists are being recruited for the new VA Hospital opening in Martinez in August.

No other positions are vacant at this time according to Dr. James S. Giotfelty, hospital director.

In discussing the personnel requirements for the new hospital, Dr. Giotfelty indicated that very few positions except those of nurse and technologist will be opened for recruitment since the Martinez hospital requires 100 less employees than the Oakland facility.

"Almost all our employees plan to come along with the hospital," he said.

"They will provide the same excellent care for veterans currently available in Oakland," he said.

Many hospital employees have already moved into the Contra Costa area and have been commuting to Oakland.

All persons interested in the nurse or technologist positions should apply at the State Employment offices at 1150 Harbor Street, Pittsburg or 1445 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek.

CONSUMERS, AWAKE!

Now is the time to be heard in Sacramento

There is strong opposition in Sacramento to bills which protect people as consumers of goods and services. We list a few bills which we believe to be in the consumer interest. If you agree, write to your representatives, State Capitol, Sacramento 14. BUT DO IT NOW; it won't do any good later. AB2502, lower auto purchase interest rates; AB2288, true statement of annual interest rates; SB1292, TV repair regulation; AB2348, auto repair regulation; SB316, better packaging practices; AB2537, regulation of household movers; AB2864, brings installment sales under $50 under regulation.

Variety in Capwell's Great Sale

At the peak of summer buying Capwell's announces its great Summer Apparel Sale Friday (May 17) begins Capwell's annual sale of the most vast quantity and variety of famous fashions for summer.

This sale offers to women, girls and children of Contra Costa the one-a-year opportunity in apparel values for summer, school, vacation and work.

Savings offered up to half off regular prices. This Summer Apparel Sale will take place in all four Capwell stores.

COATS AND SUITS

Seldom will the public see such a lavish display of luxury fur trimmed coats. Tone-on-tone cashmere coats with mink—high quality imported cashmere enhanced with mutation mink, artfully matched to the color of the coat. They come in such colors as Nude and Dawn mink, grey with Cerulean, and bamboo with Autumn Haze.

Suede leather coats with mink — new 1964 versions of coats. Three-quarter length coats on sale offer perfection for year around wear. These come in smart colors; beige with silver mink and taupe with Autumn Haze.

Mink-trimmed coats of wool-fiber blend are presented in lush black with ranch mink and taupe with Autumn Haze and beige with Dawn mink.

Cashmere and camel hair coats present another special savings. Both types of coats have an aura of quality rarely seen at this low price. An expensive look in every detail. Coming in such colors as Cashmere black, beige and nude; Camel hair, of course, come in their natural color.

Wool coats are also offered on this advanced sale. Close-out group from a famous manufacturer present wool coats in advanced summer styles specially purchased. Colors such as white, beige, red and blue are available.

COLLEGIENNE SALE

In sportswear, there are shirts in solid colors and prints with many smart collar styles including Bermuda, gentry or collarless and sleeveless shirts. Jamais in cotton denim and homespun with assorted colors and sizes are on sale.

Pants on sale offer an assortment of cotton poplins, homespun, ducks and plaids.

Junior and Junior Petite coats offer exciting buys with a variety of up-to-the-minute styles of sought after fabrics . . . all wools—white and pastel colors.

Young summer suits perfect for graduation or vacation are selling in cottons, cotton cords and rayons with a linen look in pastels and dark colors.

Merritt coats offer a large selection in everything from classic styles to high fashion . . . Elfinger, Tanglewit, Northfield and other quality woollens. Pom Pom basket weave and texture weaves with colors of white, beige and other fashion hues are presented.

SPORTSWEAR

Capwell's presents a sale of Summer Separates for year around wear. Included are cottons and cotton blends by Du Pont; seersuckers, tarpoons and batistes—slim and full skirts, matching jackets and blouses. Colors come in browns, greens and reds.

Sweaters such as the Shetland-type wool cardigans for beautiful summer cover-ups, in colors of white, black, navy, beige and pastels are on sale. Also famous make Orion cardigans of DuPont acrylic and a new group of easy care novelties.

These sweaters come in white, Ming blue, seashell, spring yellow and other colors. A big selection of Dressmaker sweaters of furbledens are offered in cardigans and pull-overs in pastel colors.

There will be a special on high priced Swimsuits especially purchased for the sale. A great assortment of styles from one of America's famous makes will be available.

Summer coordinates are available, some mixed, some matched; Arnel triacetate checks, cotton seersuckers and cotton denims color-matched to go together. Varieties of sleeveless tops or straight and full skirts in pink, blue or yellow are not to be missed.
